

This Paper not to be taken from the Library. ****

The Times

CALIFORNIA STATE LIBRARY

XVIIITH YEAR.

SINGLE PART—SIXTEEN PAGES
AT THE OFFICE COUNTER. PRICE 3 CENTS

LOS ANGELES

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 7, 1899.

ON STREETS AND TRAINS 5 CENTS AT ALL NEWS AGENCIES

THEATERS—

OPHEUM—TONIGHT—VAUDEVILLE OF THE HIGHEST CLASS.
CARON and HERBERT, the Crowned Kings of Acrobatic Comedy, FREEZE BROS., Past Masters of Tambourine Juggling. HALL and STALEY, "Twenty Century Burglars." McMAHON and KING, Funny Fellows in Rag Time.
MANSFIELD and WILBUR, "Cupid's Middleman"—new sketch. ETNA BUTLER, Sweetest of Singers. ESMERALDA, the Musical Wire Queen. CARDWINE TROUPE, 5—Wonderful Dancers—5.
PRICES—Best Reserved Seats 25c and 50c. Gallery 10c. Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday—Any seat 25c. Children 10c.
TEL. MAIN 1447.
NEXT WEEK
FELIX MORRIS AND HIS COMPANY.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—NEXT—C. M. WOOD, Lessee.
WEEK—H. C. WYATT, Manager.
Management of JOHN C. FISHER.
MODJESKA, Assisted by JOHN E. KELLER and company of play.
REPERTOIRE—Monday and Tuesday evenings and Saturday Matinee "Marie Antoinette" (by Clinton Stuart); Wednesday and Saturday evening, "Macbeth"; Wednesday matinee and Thursday evening, "Mary Stuart"; and on Friday evening,
"Much Ado About Nothing." Seats now on sale.

MOROSCO'S BURBANK THEATRE, OLIVER MOROSCO, Lessee and Manager.
Hundreds turned away, enthusiastic ovation. Tonight—
The Frawley Company in "Madame Sans Gene."
Prices—15c, 25c, 35c and 50c. Matinee Saturday only. Seats on sale from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. Next week—"The Senator."

AMUSEMENTS AND ENTERTAINMENTS—

LOS ANGELES ATHLETIC CLUB—
TONIGHT, September 7, Young Peter Jackson vs. Jim Tremble, 20 rounds.
Lyte Robison vs. Hank Griffin, 4 rounds. Young Fitzsimmons vs. Harry Murray, 4 rounds. Popular prices. General admission $1.00. Reserved seats $1.50.
Club members 50c.

STRICT FARM—South Pasadena—Delightfully cool, shady grounds. Tips, Boas and Plumage—an immense assortment at Producers' Prices.
"One of the strangest sights in America."—N. Y. Journal.

FIESTA PARK—Base Ball. MERCHANTS VS. SAN BERNARDINO.
SUNDAY, 2:30 P. M.
See. Ladies free. Shaded seats. Coolest place in town.

SUPERB ROUTES OF TRAVEL—

THE POPULAR RESORT—
REDONDO BEACH
Splendid Surf and Warm Plunge Bathing.
Finest fishing on the Coast from the two large wharfs.
Open-air Band Concerts every Sunday
By the celebrated SEVENTH REGIMENT BAND (24 pieces).

Santa Fe Leave daily 9:55 a. m., 1:30 p. m., 5:35 p. m.
Trains leave 8:30-9:55 a. m., 1:30-5:35-7:00 p. m.
Last train returning Sunday leaves Redondo 8:00 p. m.
50 CENTS ROUND TRIP EVERY DAY.

EXCURSIONS MOUNT LOWE RAILWAY—

$1.75 "SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9 and 10," from Los Angeles to Alpine Tavern and return (including all points on Mount Lowe Railway). "FIFTY CENTS TO RUBIO CANYON and return."
Autumn days in the mountains among the giant pines and the grandest scenery on earth. Pasadena Electric cars connecting leave 8, 9, and 10 a. m., and 4 p. m. All Connections make entire trip and return same day. Evening special leaves Ye Alpine Tavern after supper, making stop at Echo Mountain for guests to enjoy the operation of the World's Fair Search Light and large Telescope, arriving at 10:45.
To make your trip complete remain over night or longer at "YE ALPINE TAVERN"
—strictly first class and prices reasonable. Tickets and full information, office, 214
S. Spring St. Tel. Main 960.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT—Long Beach—

Sept. 5 to 15.
LOS ANGELES TERMINAL RAILWAY THE OFFICIAL LINE.
Trains leave 8:45 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 1:40 p. m., 5:15 p. m., 6:20 p. m. Fare 50c round trip. SPECIAL TRAIN Pasadena Day will leave Long Beach 10 p. m. for Los Angeles and Pasadena. Information and tickets 214 South Spring Street.

POLO RACES—Sept. 8th, 9th—

OCEAN PARK Four Special Races each day.
SANTA FE will run Special Trains, Stopping at Race Track.
Leave La Grande Station 9:55 a. m., 1:00 p. m. Special Train returning after races.
ROUND TRIP 50 CENTS.

EXCURSION TO RIVERSIDE—

SEPTEMBER
8TH AND 9TH $2.35 ROUND TRIP
Tickets good returning until Sept. 11th. Choice of routes—Go one way, return another.
Santa Fe Trains Leave 8:00 a. m., 9:05 a. m., 9:50 a. m., 5:05 p. m.
Ticket Office Cor. Spring and Second Streets.

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND—

The famous resort 3 1/2 hours from Los Angeles. Golf Links, Submarine gardens as seen through glass-bottom boats. Marvelous exhibition of living fish in glass tanks. Coaching hunting the wild goat, fishing, etc. Most equable climate in the world—average temperature 70 degrees. HOTEL METROPOL always open at popular rates. Regular steamer service from San Pedro. See Railroad time tables.
Tel. Main 36.
222 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

ANNUAL REGATTA—

FREE-FOR-ALL YACHT RACE, Terminal Island, Sunday, Sept. 10. 15
Yachts. Cash prizes. Start made at 11:30 a. m. Terminal Railway trains leave 8:45 a. m., 8:45 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 1:40 p. m. Fare 50c round trip. Information, 214 S. Spring St.

TIMELY SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS—

HOTEL FOR CATALINA—

Benefit of Newboys' Home, Saturday, Sept. 9, Steamship Hermosa. Rates reduced to $2 from Los Angeles to Avalon and return. Tickets good for 10 days. Take a trip to the island on Admission Day, thereby helping a worthy charity, besides enjoying a pleasant outing. Special trains will leave Terminal depot at 8 a. m. Returning boat will leave Avalon at 3:30 p. m., giving excusionists who wish to return on the same day four hours of pleasure on the island.
Tickets on sale at Banning & Co.'s office, Terminal depot and 214 S. Spring Street.

40 CENTS PER BOX—

Fancy, selected large fresh figs, all varieties.
Traded at headquarters and get the best at lowest prices.

No goods displayed on the sidewalk
ALTHOUSE FRUIT CO. Phone Main 39.
219-215 W. Second St.

FRESH VEGETABLES—

Brussels Sprouts, Young Peas and Asparagus Irrigated with pure water. Can Flies now. All varieties in bounteous profusion, the largest and best stock to select from in the city.
Telephone M. 1429
We ship everywhere.
RIVERS BROS. 300-2-4-306 Temple Street, Corner Broadway.

CARBONS—

"Every Picture a Work of Art."
Visitors should not miss the opportunity to have photographs taken under the most favorable condition of atmosphere in the world.
STUDIO 2304 SOUTH SPRING ST., Opp. Hollenbeck
A good place to trade—113 South Spring Street. Fischer & Knabe Pianos.

FITZGERALD MUSIC AND PIANO CO.

NEW STORE IN REDLANDS FOR RENT—Fine location on south side State Street, near corner of Orange. Room 8x18, high ceiling, 10-foot show windows, shady side of street, no wiring necessary. Ready October first. For terms, address K. C. WELLS, Redlands.

[THE PHILIPPINES.]

MAKES MONEY DOES AGUINALDO.

Three Millions in Paper is Circulated.

People Have to Accept it and Wait Three Years.

Must Supply the Army With Live Stock Gratis.

Iowa Regiment Withdrawn from Duty—Natives Making Attacks on Imus—Troops Want Books and Papers—Gen. Miles.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
MANILA, Sept. 6, 5:50 p. m.—[By Manila Cable.] The recent issue of Philippo paper money amounts to $3,000,000.
The acceptance of this issue is made obligatory, and the bills are made redeemable in three years.

The insurgents have issued a call upon the property-owners in the interior to supply gratis to the insurgent army carts, horses and cattle.

MADE A SALLY.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
MANILA, Sept. 7, 10:30 a. m.—Small detachments of Filipinos make demonstrations nightly around Imus, firing volleys upon the American outposts.
The Americans have thus far not replied, except Tuesday night, when two companies of the Fourth Infantry sailed out and fired two volleys in the direction of the disturbers, who disappeared immediately.

The secret service has learned that Aguinaldo has preferred charges against the general commanding in the Cavite province for refusing to obey an order to attack Imus.

The Americans treat the Filipinos more like fractious children than enemies. Proofs have been obtained that the Mayor and five members of the Council are active in securing sympathizers, and many insurgent soldiers are visiting the town in disguise. There is no desire to stop them, however, as it is thought a display of the American resources and the efforts to give the Filipinos a good government will have a beneficial effect.

MANILA NOTES.

Iowans Coming Home—Native At- tacks on Imus.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
MANILA, Sept. 6, 5:50 p. m.—[By Manila Cable.] The Iowa Regiment, the last of the volunteer organizations on duty in the Island of Luzon, has been withdrawn from Calicut to the barracks at Calocan, preparatory to departing for home. The number who will sail is 806. Less than 300 of the regiment were on duty at the front when the order came for their relief, 406 being on the sick list. This regiment has undergone hard outpost duty for three months, during which it has been very much exposed to the rains. Seventy-five members of the regiment have resisted. All the Iowans participated in some of the fighting between Malolos and San Fernando, and not one of them was killed in battle; thirty-nine were wounded and nine died of disease.

The insurgents continue to make demonstrations in the vicinity of Imus.
The American outposts were obliged to fire volleys the past three nights.

Mail advices from Zamboanga report that the town has been practically deserted.

The facts concerning the recently reported fighting between Dato Mundi and the insurgents are that the insurgents attacked a village in the Dato's dominions on the neighboring islands, killing two of the villagers. The Dato's men quickly drove off the insurgents, of whom several were killed.

MILES WANTS TO GO.

Some of His Friends Say He'll Succeed
Gen. Otis.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Miles' friends declare that he now fully expects to be sent to the Philippines before very long.
They declare this openly, and those among them who happen to disagree with Gen. Otis say that Gen. Miles will succeed Otis in command of the military operations. They admit that pressure is being brought upon the President to make this change, but they cannot say that the President is seriously considering such a step.

Gen. Miles, it is understood, takes the ground that some senior officer of the army should be in the Philippines —that is, one of the major-generals in the regular army. Gen. Otis is a major-general of volunteers and a brigadier-general in the regular army.
Gen. Miles' attitude rather indicates that there is some feeling among a few army officers here against Gen.
Otis.

President McKinley, however, realizes the exact situation, and it is hardly to be expected that he will consent to allow an officer to dismiss Washington to the Philippines to take command, and get there just at the time the fighting is over, to receive the Filipinos' surrender and whatever glory may come therefrom.

VETERAN REGIMENT.

Over Half of the Thirtieth Complies
Re-enlisted Men.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The Thirtieth Regiment, which has been for some weeks recruiting at Fort Sheridan, dismissed today for San Francisco on a train traveling in seven sections over the Chicago and North-Western. The route is via Omaha. The first section, having aboard Col. Gardiner and staff, and Cos. A and C, left at 1 o'clock.

An interval of one hour occurred between the departure of the remaining sections.

The regiment is remarkable for the number of veterans who enlisted; 52 per cent. are re-enlisted men; 530 ex--volunteers, 83 enlisted upon the expiration of their service in the regular army, and 43 have had training in the militias of various States.
Of the 1300 enlisted men, 706 were drawn from Illinois.

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Gen. Otis Cables List of Recent Casualties in the Army.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Gen. Otis
cables the following casualties:
THIRTY-SIXTH INFANTRY.
Killed: Near Rio, September 3, Co.
A., John Derringer.

TWENTY-FIRST INFANTRY.
Wounded: At Calamba, July 26, Sergt.
James Conley, ankle, severe.

SIXTH INFANTRY.
At Bobon, Negros, August 19, Co. K,
Albert Jenkins, throat and jaw, severe;

Near San Fernando, August 9, Co. D, Edward Gorman, groin, slight.

THIRTY-SIXTH INFANTRY.
September 3, Co. A, Frank Rathman, loin and leg, severe.

TENTH WASHINGTON SAILS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Gen. Otis
cables Manila today:

"Pennsylvania sails September 5 with 42 officers, 776 enlisted men; Tenth Washington Infantry, 2 officers, 34 discharged; 3 men Hospital Corps, 7 civilians. Washington Infantry left in Manila 10 officers, 147 enlisted men, re-enlisted; 2 officers, 41 enlisted men, discharged. None sick."

HOME RULE GRANTED.

GEN. OTIS ORDERS GOVERNMENT FOR NEGRO ISLAND.

Action Taken Pending Decision by the President and Congress—Military Governor to Be Appointed and a Civil Governor and Advisory Council to Be Elected.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—A special to the Times-Herald from Washington yesterday says:

"Copies of Gen. Otis' order granting home rule to the people of the island of Negros were received by the State and War departments today, together with a constitution proposed by the inhabitants of the island, upon which they seek to have established for themselves a republican form of government.

The action will be very carefully considered by the President in connection with the recommendations for the government of the archipelago, which will be incorporated in his forthcoming message, but in the mean time the government will continue to exercise its authority in accordance with the order issued by Gen. Otis, which announces that Brig-
-Gen. James Smith, U. S. V., commanding the United States troops in the sub-
-military districts of the island of Negros, is appointed Military Governor of the island.

"The people of Negros, through duly-accredited representatives, having freely acknowledged the sovereignty of the United States, and having developed and forwarded to His Excellency the President of the United States for the consideration and delib-
-eration of Congress, a proposed consti-tution or body of fundamental laws, upon which they seek to have estab-lished a republican form of government, it is deemed essential pending final action by the President and the Congress of the United States strictly and exclusively to the government of the island, must be main-tained, that a provisional government to administer its civil matters be in-stituted, under which the people may en-joy the largest measure of civil liberty compatible with prevailing conditions, and which will conform to the desires, as expressed in their proposed constitution.

"It is therefore ordered that a government for that island be established as speedily as practicable. The government of the island of Negros shall consist of a military Governor appointed by the United States Military Governor of the Philippines, who shall command the United States troops stationed therein; and which the people may or may not elect by the people. The military Governor shall appoint secretaries for the treasury, interior, agriculture, pub-lic instruction, an attorney-general, a judge, and a military auditor, who shall act under his immediate instructions. The seat of government shall be established at Bacolor.
The military Governor shall exercise the supreme legislative power. The military Governor shall exercise the supreme executive power. He shall appoint and remove all officers and fill all vacancies in office not herein otherwise provided for, and with the approval of the military governor of the Philippines, remove any officer from office; he shall perform such other functions as the duties of his position may require.

"The civil governor, to be elected by the people, shall advise the military governor of all public civil questions, which are executed by the military council. He shall preside over the council. He shall countersign all grants and commissions of civil nature,
which are executed by the military governor. He shall attend every session of the advisory council, and, in case of a tie, vote in said body. He shall cast his vote in the election of the advisory council; shall attest the official acts of the military governor, insofar as strictly civil matters are concerned; shall affix the great seal, with his own attestation, to all civil commissions, pardons and public instruments to which the official signature of the military governor is required, and perform such other duties as may be duly conferred upon him.

"The duties of the secretaries of treasury, interior, and agriculture, and the auditor, are of practically the same character as those of the United States. The secretary of pub-lic instruction has charge of schools.
Municipal governments shall be or-ganized as soon as possible under the supervision of the military and civil governors.

(CONTINUED ON THIRD PAGE.)

[SOUTH AFRICA.]

TALK IN RAAD IS DEFIANT.

Only Half a Day's Notice Required.

Arrival of Ammunition Affects the Speeches.

Boers Realize a Peaceful Solution is Impossible.

Consignment of Cannon for the Pretoria Government Now on the Way from France—Munitions Continue to Arrive.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
LONDON, Sept. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The second edition of the Times issued this morning publishes a dispatch from Newcastle, Natal, which says that during yesterday's debate in the Raad, regarding the proximity of British troops to Transvaal territory, Herr Delarri, a member of the Raad, said: "The Boers only require half a day's notice to fight."

The correspondent of the Times, continuing, said: "Many conclude that the defiant tone of the speeches are not unconnected with the fact that Mauser ammunition, which had been stopped at Delagoa Bay, has now been received.
The Pretoria government admits that a consignment of cannon is now on its way from France. It is the evident aim of the Boers to secure time until grass and water are plentiful, the burghers fully recognizing that a peaceful settlement of the difficulty is out of the question."

The Cape Town correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: "In regard to the remarks of Sir John Gordon Spriggs, former Premier of Cape Colony, and leader of the opposition, made at yesterday's session of the House of Assembly, Hon. William P. Schreiner, Premier of Cape Colony, said that permits had not been granted for large quantities of ammunition to be transported through the colony, but that small quantities for local importation had been granted, and he had no desire at present to stop such importations."

KRUGER'S SUDDEN CHANGE.

He Now Accepts the Suggestion for a Conference.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

"The altered aspect of the Transvaal affair continues to be a mystery too deep to be probed by anybody outside the chief secretary's room in the Colonial Office. President Kruger has suddenly changed his ground. He had been refusing to grant a joint inquiry into the precise effects of the proposed political changes, but had offered a five year franchise and increased representation under the condition that

Points of the News in Today's Times.

[INDEX TO THE NEWS BUDGET:—Volume: Fresh A. P. Night

Report and exclusive Times specials received by wire since dark last night, about 11 columns. Financial and Commercial, about 3 columns.

Day Report (not so fresh) about 11 columns. Aggregate, 25 columns.

The Index (for both telegraphic and local news) refers to general classification, subject and page.]

The City—Pages 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

Firemen punished for infractions of rules....Plan to furnish employment for returning volunteers....Miners' Association to welcome institute delegates.
Board of Supervisors asks aid for Porto Rico sufferers....Mother and babe united by Judge Smith....Methew arraigned....Chaudessio held on charge of murdering Del Basti....Unfairness charged in a new sewer district....Mc-Keeby case decided for the city....
Street sweeping claim rejected....Hon.
John Barrett, ex-Minister to Siam, to be invited to address the Chamber of Commerce on trade extension....
Welcome accorded G. A. R. officers at Camp Dewey....Young man's tumble from a loft....Lieut. McKie not a dead hero....Thieves and till-tappers at work....Deputy constables dropped....
Battery D's benefit.

Southern California—Page 15.

Pasadena man sets his bed afire to kill pests....Santa Monica Trustees meet....Anahiem's railroad puzzle....A woman's hasty departure from Santa Catalina Island....Sudden death at Po-mo....Schooner driven against the wharf and damaged at Terminal Island.
Money-paying slot machines prohibited in San Diego....New plans wanted for the Orange County Courthouse....State collateral inheritance tax law upset at Pasadena....Mayor of Santa Barbara arrested on complaint of a Councilman.

By Cable—Pages 1, 2, 3.

Dreyfus court-martial held behind closed doors—Interesting session....Issue in South African case rests with Friday's Cabinet council....Ultimatum looked for....Provisional Governor installed at Puerto Plata....Doncaster race meeting.

Financial and Commercial—Page 14.

Local produce markets....General eastern markets....Grain and provisions at Chicago....Shares and money at New York....San Francisco mining stocks....Bond list....Closing stocks and sales....California fruit sales at New York and Chicago.

[GRAND ARMY.]

THEY LINE UP FOR BUSINESS.

Veterans and Auxiliary Bodies Meet.

Reports Show Organizations are in Good Condition.

Effects of the Spanish-American War Referred To.

Senior Vice-Commander Johnson Succeeds Col. Sexton—Pennsylvania to Support Shepperd.
Women's Relief Corps.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—The real business of the Grand Army gathering began today with the assembling of the national encampment in the Grand Opera-house. The election of the next commander-in-chief is an important question which will be decided by the delegates. It is expected that Col. William C. Johnson of Cincinnati, the acting commander-in-chief, will be elected to fill the unexpired term of two days.
This will render him ineligible to candidacy for the full term, and he will be given the title of past commander-in-chief.

The contest for the commandship is between Col. Albert D. Shaw of New York and Judge Leo Rossier of Missouri. In the meeting of the Council of Administration, after the ad-journing of the convention, there will be an effort to change the method of choosing the Executive Committee.

In addition to the national encampment, the following auxiliary organizations began their meeting today: The Naval Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Union ex-
-Prisoners of War, Ladies' Auxiliary
Naval Veterans, National Army Nurses' Association and Daughters of Veterans. In addition there were many corps reunions during the day and night. The show feature was a parade of Union ex-prisoners of war.

The national encampment met in executive session at 11 o'clock. The delegates did not hold the customary open meeting, owing to the large amount of business to be transacted.

In his report, Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief W. C. Johnson of Cincinnati says:

"I cannot commend too highly the efficient work and invaluable assistance rendered to our order by that magnificent auxiliary organization, the Woman's Relief Corps. During the past year the national treasurer of the W. R. C., Mrs. Bagley, forwarded to our national headquarters the munificent sum of $102,500 as a contribution from the W. R. C. to the Memorial-day funds. Besides their great charitable work, they are teachers of patriotism and loyalty to flag and country of the highest order, as demonstrated by their splendid work in our public schools.

"I herewith give a statement taken from the report of the national secretary: Number of members, 99,193; number of corps, 3156; amount of money expended for relief, present year, $11-92.12; estimated value of relief present year, $50,648.32; amount turned over to posts, $38,111.42; expended for Memorial day, $10,800.20; expended for Memorial day in southern department, $1,028.56; expended for W. R. C. members, $794.77; estimated total of $18,000 expended for the year and making a grand total expended for relief since its organization to June 30, 1899, of $173-991.71.

"Another organization of excellent devoted women who have aided materially in a charitable work of our order is that of the Ladies of the G. A. R., who have in many places rendered valuable services and deserve our sincere thanks. Reference is made to the investigation of the Pension Office by the Pension expressions of warmest friendly relations recommend the endorsement of the membership."

On the subject of the Spanish-American war, Col. Johnson says in part:
"The Spanish-American war, though short in its duration, has wrought some of the most marvelous changes and accomplished some far-reaching magnificent results, in which the survivors of the Grand Army of the Republic have especial reasons for rejoicing and satisfaction and, I might say, congratulation.
The cementing of the ties of national fraternity, the open recognition of the fact that we are one nation with one flag, and are a strong united people is especially gratifying. It has demonstrated to the world that the American soldier and sailor stand today, as before, for intelligence, pluck, bravery, valor, patriotism and endurance, preeminent that our resources are varied and immense, and can be quickly utilized."

SPONGLE FIGHTING.

AGNEWS ASYLUM SUPERINTENDENT GOES TO COURT.

His Attorney Attempts to Show He Cannot Be Removed Without the Filing of Written Charges Under the Old Law.

Atty.-Gen. Ford in His Opening Statement Asserts the Bureau Has Power to Remove the Officer at Any Juncture.

Murder and Suicide at Tucson—The Howard Conspirators—Weather and Crop Conditions—Judgment Against John Burr.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SAN JOSE, Sept. 6.—The matter of the legality of the action of Gov. Gage and the board of managers of the Agnews State Hospital for the Insane in removing Dr. F. M. Spongole from the superintendency of that institution came up before Judge Hyland, today, under the writ of review sued out by H. H. Morehouse, the doctor's attorney.

In opening the proceedings, Atty.-Gen. Ford read an extended typewritten answer to the petition, in which it was denied that the meeting of expulsion at the Palace Hotel was a special meeting, but, on the other hand, was an adjourned session of the regular meeting. Other material allegations were also denied, and the averment was made that Dr. Spongole was removed in accordance with law and for the best interests of the hospital.

The opening argument was made by Atty.-Gen. Ford. He held that it was not necessary to prefer charges, and that the board of managers had the right to remove the superintendent summarily at any time. It was also contended that the court had no jurisdiction in the matter. Dr. Spongole's remedy was in a mandamus suit to prevent his removal from office. Attorney Morehouse then began his argument. He held that the removal was an extended one, and was directed principally to the point as to whether or not the medical superintendent was elected for a prescribed term of four years, and the law bearing upon this point was quoted at length. It was held that the act of the Legislature forming the Lunacy Commission did not repeal the statutes which provided for the tenure of office of the medical superintendent.

It was attempted to be shown by the speaker that the former statute, making the term of four years for the officer in question, provided that he could not be removed without written charges being made, had not been repealed. The matter was then submitted for decision.

CLAIMING A BACKDOWN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAN JOSE, Sept. 6.—It will be remembered that Dr. Spongole secured a temporary injunction against the board, and he has now a writ of review and a permanent injunction. He alleges that the Palace Hotel meeting was a special session, and that all acts in attempting to remove him were illegal and void. In addition he says no charges were preferred against him as required by law.

Atty.-Gen. Ford's answer makes only incidental reference to the paper read by Gov. Gage at the Palace Hotel meeting, and Ford stated in open court, in answer to a question from Morehouse, that he would not contend that there were any charges filed at the meeting against Spongole unless subsequent developments in the hearing forced him to do so.

Spongole's friends are now claiming that the Governor has backed down from the charges made at the Palace Hotel and come in the record of the court.

OIL EXCHANGES ORGANIZED.

Many Applications for Membership to New Institutions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Two oil exchanges were organized permanently today. The California Oil Exchange, of which the public has already heard much, and the Oil Producers' Exchange, whose birth comes as a surprise.

The California Oil Exchange went into permanent organization today. The members of the exchange are about sixty-five, and over one hundred and twenty applications have been received. Thus far fifty-nine members have been accepted, and the remaining six will be admitted from among the applicants who are oil producers.

Among the latest additions to the membership are G. Hughes, vice-president of the United Oil Company; W. L. Henderson, a southern oil producer, and D. W. Stuart of the Santa Barbara Oil Company of Sumnerland.

It has not yet been decided when the rooms of the California Oil Exchange will be opened for business, but it will be at the Securities Committee has passed upon the large number of applications now before it, which will probably be in about a week. The new institution known as the Oil Producers' Exchange has been holding long sessions every day this week, and organized permanently this afternoon. Its officers are: President, George W. Terrill, president of the Home Oil Company; vice-president and caller, Joseph L. King; secretary, R. V. Heath; treasurer, W. J. Berry. Among the prominent members are Frank Barrett of Palo Alto, L. F. Postin of Selma, John C. Moore of Fresno, J. M. Merrill of Oakland, William C. Hale, Charles Sonntag, Harry Francis, John Heenane and Howard H. Shinn of San Francisco.

The Producers' Exchange has not yet secured quarters, but will probably locate in the Mills Building. Two sessions will be held daily for the sale of oil and securities.

CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE.

Opening Session Largely Attended at Pacific Grove.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) PACIFIC GROVE, Sept. 6.—The forty-seventh annual session of the California Conference opened in this city today. Bishop H. N. Shinde of Detroit, Mich., presiding. One hundred and seventy-eight members were present to answer the roll call, this being the largest attendance of an opening session in the history of the conference. The following conference officers were elected: Secretary, A. H. Needham of Oakland; statistical secretary, H. J. Wikia; treasurer, Thomas Filben of Pacific Grove. Standing conference committees were elected.

The officers and the committees entered upon their duties immediately and business proceeded rapidly. The most notable action of the morning, outside of the officers' election, was the adoption of a motion setting 10 o'clock a.m. tomorrow as the time for the election of the delegates to this conference to the general conference in Chicago in 1898. This session of the conference is especially important on account of this election.

Nine ministers, transferred from other conference bodies to the California conference since its last session, were presented to the members and cordially received. Among them were men from Eastern States, Hawaii, China and Japan. The conference adjourned at noon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

PACIFIC GROVE, Sept. 6.—Two anniversary celebrations, those of the conference Ladies' Aid Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, occupied the afternoon and evening sessions of the conference.

TYPHOON IN JAPAN.

Heavy Loss of Life at the Village of Kashi.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) PORT TOWNSEND (Wash.), Sept. 6.—The oriental steamship Glenogle, which arrived from Yokohama today, brings mail advices as follows:

On August 15 Kagashima was visited by a typhoon, causing a serious loss of life and property. According to the official investigation eleven persons were killed and fifty-two injured, 360 houses collapsed and 867 were badly injured.

In the rural districts thirty-three people were killed and 110 injured and 1143 houses were blown down and 339 partly wrecked. Shipping suffered heavily. Forty-five boats were wrecked, twenty-one of this number being capsized while at anchor.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Grapes Ripening Rapidly in Some Sections—Good Yield.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The following is a summary of the weekly crop Bulletin issued by the Weather Bureau for the week ending September 4:

The temperature continues slightly below normal, except in Southern California, but has been generally higher than during the preceding week. There was a light shower at Eureka. Grapes are ripening rapidly and picking has commenced in some sections. The first crop of raisin grapes will be light, but the second crop promises a good yield, though late.

Late peaches and quinces are ripening, and will yield a good crop. Prunes are yielding better than estimated. Harvesting and thrashing are completed, except in a few sections. High winds and sandstorms on the 2nd caused slight damage to fruit in portions of the San Joaquin Valley.

BLOWN TO PIECES.

Horrible Fate of Two Men in the Mayflower Mine.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEVADA, Sept. 6.—Samuel B. Bishop and Henry Hawk were blown to pieces by an accidental explosion of giant powder in the Mayflower mine today. They were working on the 200-foot level, and had just tamped the last holes before quitting for the day. Not having enough powder, they walked to the hoist cut drift, where the explosives were kept. Soon a terrific explosion was heard, and when the other miners reached the scene the mangled bodies of the two men were found.

Two grown sons and two married daughters were blown to pieces. The bodies were exploded, tearing a large hole in the drift and causing the timbers to shatter. Bishop leaves a widow, two grown sons and two married daughters. He was a native of Missouri and a veteran of the civil war. He came here from Fresno county one year ago.

Hawk, aged 19 years, was son of Josiah Hawk, a pioneer of Gold Flats, and was a member of the Foresters of America.

HOWARD CONSPIRATORS.

Member of the Gang Under Arrest Makes a Statement.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Chief of Police Lees states that James Kelly, a member of the so-called Howard band of conspirators, who are alleged to have robbed the treasure vault of the steamer Alameda of $25,000, is in jail in the City of Mexico, charged with bank robbery. He has been reported as dead and buried in New Orleans by his former associate, James Casey, now in prison.

Casey now declares that he was paid $5000 by Augustus Howard to murder Willard F. Green and throw his body overboard from the steamer Alameda. This money was to be divided among Casey, Kelly and Murphy, and their associates, in equal shares. The money was paid to Casey told a Call reporter by Howard, the night before the Alameda left this port. Another man, named Lewis is said to belong to the band. Howard is thought to be either in Canada or Mexico.

BARAGAN CONFESSES.

Says He Helped Rob Davis Whom Duarte Had Killed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 6.—The preliminary examination was held today of Pedro Baragan, accused of murdering C. C. Duarte at Bakersfield in October, 1892. Three witnesses confronted him, each saying that he had confessed to killing Davis. His chief accuser was a man named Duarte. He was held to answer for murder.

Later in the day Baragan asked the Sheriff to take him to court again. There he insisted on telling his story. He went on to say that he and Duarte went out at night in Bakersfield to steal or rob. The men were and heard money jingling in his pocket. Duarte shot and killed Davis. He said they were five or six feet from Davis when the shot was fired.

TRANSMIT ELECTRICITY.

Sacramento Bringing Her Power from Brown's Valley.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 6.—Sacramento is successfully using today electric power transmitted sixty miles over aluminum wires, and coming from Brown's Valley, above Marysville. It is the first installment of 1000 horse power sent by the North Valley Company under contract with the Sacramento Electric Gas and Railway Company of this city, and supplements power already used transmitted here from Newcastle and Folsom. Under contract 4000 more horse power is to follow.

SCURRY RAMPANT.

Malady Causes Much Distress on Clipperton Island.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The steamer Sequoia, which has arrived from Clipperton Island, reports that scurry is causing much distress there. Five men have succumbed to the disease, and twenty-three others are afflicted with the malady. In all there are only about fifty men on the island engaged in collecting guano for shipment to this city. The Sequoia was the first vessel to touch at the island for four months.

Those on the island were in a state of alarm when the steamer arrived on August 11, for she had been expected months before. Only sixteen men were fit to be at work, and a few days more would have probably put them on a sick list. The stores of the Sequoia were levied upon, and lime juice and vegetables were dealt out to those who were ill, with the result that while the sailed all showed signs of improvement.

FRAUD WAS PRACTICED.

Supreme Court Finds Against the Atlas Iron Works.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The Supreme court has decided against the Atlas Iron Works of this city, and has ordered the lower court to enter a judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

Carrie C. Dow owned a ranch in Tulare county worth about $20,000, and exchanged that for 22,350 shares of the stock of the Atlas Iron Works of this city. No dividends were paid to Mrs. Dow, and she sued for a rescission of the contract of exchange, on the ground of fraud. The lower court gave judgment for the defendant corporation. The Supreme court declares that fraud was practiced in making the exchange.

OF INTEREST TO EMPLOYEES.

Important Decision Handed Down in a Suit for Wages.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—A decision of interest to employees of corporations was rendered today by United States Circuit Judge Morrow, in the suit of Henry Skinner vs. the Garnet Gold Mining Company, to recover wages. Judgment was asked and rendered for $781 and $300 attorneys' fees and costs.

The important feature of the case was a dispute on the constitutionality of the law requiring payment of wages once a month. The court held that the statute is in force and effect.

MURDERER MILLER CONVICTED.

First Case of the Kind Under the New Japanese Treaty.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

VICTORIA (B. C.), Sept. 6.—The steamer Glenogle, which arrived here from Japan this morning, reports that Robert Miller, the American charged with the murder of H. N. Ward and two Japanese women, was convicted and sentenced to be executed at Yokohama September 19. The case was notable, owing to the fact that it was the first trial of a foreigner under the new treaties.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Young Boy Accidentally Shoots His Older Brother.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

COVELLO, Sept. 6.—Valentine Costello, aged 24, was accidentally shot and killed with a rifle today by his brother, Mathias, 13 years old. The gun had been used in shooting hogs, and Mathias was replacing it in the holster. In doing so he discharged the weapon, and Valentine, who was in range, fell dead.

JUDGMENT AGAINST BURR.

R. H. McCray Secures Damages for "Conversion of Property."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The Supreme court has affirmed the judgment in the case of R. H. McCray vs. John Burr, formerly Sheriff of Los Angeles. The plaintiff secured damages for conversion of property.

DESPERATE MOTHER.

Drowns Her Ten-year-old Boy and Hangs Herself.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

TUCSON (Ariz.), Sept. 6.—Mrs. Ethel S. Row, committed suicide Monday night by hanging after drowning her ten-year-old boy in a bathtub. The bodies were discovered this morning. She secured a divorce a year ago. Despondency is supposed to have been the cause.

WILDER AND HIS CARCASSES.

Stockton, Sept. 6.—Sheriff Sibbey has in charge a young man named Wilder, who was in town trying to sell three beef carcasses, from which the heads had been removed. He was traced here from Brentwood, and it is believed he got the carcasses from some range on reclaimed land. The carcasses were placed in cold storage, awaiting investigation of the case.

ASTRONOMICAL CONFERENCE.

Notable Gathering at the Yerkes Observatory at Williams Bay.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—A special to the Record from Williams Bay, Wis., says that several astronomers have arrived to participate in the astronomical conference which is to be held at the Yerkes Observatory, tomorrow and Friday. The program of the conference will be informal, and will be arranged from day to day by the committee, which consists of Prof. Hale of the Yerkes Observatory, Prof. Pickering of Harvard, Prof. Comstock of Washington Observatory, Madison; Prof. Michaelson of the University of Chicago and Prof. Morley of Cleveland. No one but members will be admitted to the sessions.

Among those who have arrived are Prof. Conant and Flint, University of Wisconsin; Prof. Doane, University of Pennsylvania; Prof. Morley and Whitman of Cleveland, Prof. H. Wadsworth of Allegheny, Prof. Hall, University of Michigan; Prof. Stone, University of Virginia; Prof. Brown and Prof. Harkness, Naval Observatory, Washington; and Prof. Snyder of Philadelphia.

PEACE BROKEN.

Revolutionary Movement Has Again Appeared in Venezuela.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—After an unusually long period of peace, trouble has again appeared in Venezuela, and a revolutionary movement is now in progress. The information was sent to the State Department from an unofficial source, but one believed to be trustworthy.

The extent of the movement is not known here, but as there have been for some time past rumors of discontent, it would not be surprising if this last manifestation should prove to be of large proportions.

Orders will be issued to the cruiser Detroit to proceed at once to La Guayra, Venezuela, in view of the disturbed condition of affairs. The Detroit will be accompanied by the Commodore Sampson's fleet at Philadelphia.

MAKES MONEY.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

governors, and the advisory council. Officers of cities, towns and municipalities in office at the time of the promulgation of this order shall continue to act in their official capacity until successors are elected, selected or appointed and qualified.

The judicial power shall be vested in three judges, who shall be appointed by the military governor of the island. Inferior courts shall be provided for and established by the military governor, and the civil governor and advisory council.

"Free public schools shall be established throughout the populous districts of the island, in which the English language shall be taught, and this subject will receive the careful consideration of the advisory council.

"The burden of government must be equitably distributed among the people. The military authorities will collect and receive the customs revenue, if any; will control postal matters and Philippine inter-island trade and commerce.

TWENTY-SEVENTH INFANTRY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The Twenty-seventh Infantry, under command of Col. Ned Bell, arrived at the Presidio today, and is now camped on the hill with the Thirty-first and Thirty-fourth. The regiment commenced to arrive in the morning, and all day sections of it kept coming into the Presidio. The Twenty-seventh is from Camp Meade, Pa., and all of its men are from the New England States.

WANT READING MATTER.

Philippine Soldier Says Papers and Books are Scarce.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Col. William S. Patten of the Quartermaster-General's office has just received from his son, Lieut. W. T. Patten, of the Philippine army, a letter in which the writer calls attention to the lack of reading matter obtainable at Manila. He says:

"It would be a great thing if you could send me papers, for we have nothing to read here. One has to content himself upon letters. Papers or magazines, anywhere from three to six months old, are read with great pleasure. Any fairly recent Army and Navy Journal or anything in the reading line, would be more than welcome.

You cannot imagine what good those soldiers do to collect and send to the hospitals here American papers, magazines and books. Of course, all those go to the hospitals, where many more are urgently needed. Ladies here save everything for that purpose, but it is not nearly sufficient."

THE GOLD FIELDS.

IT'S A MONEY-MAKER.

WHITE PASS RAILROAD'S INCOME $125,000 A WEEK.

Freight Rates Three Cents a Pound and Passenger Fares a Little Over Twenty-five Cents a Mile. Dyea's Population Doubles to Fifty.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TACOMA (Wash.), Sept. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The White Pass Railroad, forty miles long, is making money like a mint. The third week in August the road sent forward 1400 tons of freight from Skagway to Bennett, and the estimate for the last week of August was 1800 tons. Its income was $200,000 for the week ending August 25, and the estimate for the week ending August 26 was $220,000.

The passenger traffic and south-bound freight for the same period would net $50,000 more, making the road's income a quarter of a million for two weeks. Steam sawmills, to be put on the line, will produce supplies, live stock and lumber make up the bulk of the freight, the major part of which is for Dawson. Freight rates over the line still average 3 cents a pound and passenger fares a little more than 25 cents a mile.

State Senator Patterson of Oregon and Judge Stratford, who have been north for some time looking after government land interests, have selected four tracts of land in the abandoned town of Dyea for a reserve for Uncle Sam. They are for a wharf, a cemetery, a school and a military post. These reservations seem strange in face of the fact that Dyea's population has dwindled to fifty, inclusive of children, the figures given at the Dyea office. Fifteen months ago Dyea had a rush population of 10,000. Scores of vacant houses stare at visitors today. Some of them are being torn down and floated to Skagway.

The water in the lower Yukon, below the Hootalliqua, is falling rapidly. In consequence large boats will be unable to make more than one trip this season. Two have already started. A number of smaller steamers, drawing from thirty to forty inches, will still be capable of handling the traffic. The last steamer from Dawson carried passengers to White Horse for $10 each.

SEVEN DEAD PROSPECTORS.

Otto Thews Confirms the News of New York's Fate.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SEATTLE (Wash.), Sept. 6.—Otto Thews of Primrose, Iowa, who has arrived from Copper River Alaska, brings news confirming the reported deaths of seven members of the Scientific Prospecting Company of New York. The dead are: Earhart, Miller, Allerman, Schmitt, Peter Siegel, Buttner, and Baumgartner.

George Hooker, another member of the party, got out alive, but is badly crippled with scurvy, which carried away the majority of his companions. Baumgartner went out hunting one day, and was never seen again. The most affecting case is that of Buttner, who was driven insane by his sufferings and was frozen to death.

OPEN SWITCHES WORK.

Express Train Crashes into the Rear of a Freight.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

MEADVILLE (Pa.), Sept. 6.—An open switch caused a wreck on the Erie at Miller's Station, a short distance above this city, today, in which three Meadville men were killed and one injured. A tramp was also killed and another injured. A west-bound freight train had taken the siding to allow train No. 5, vestibuled limited New York-Chicago express, to pass. The switch was left open, and the passenger train ran into the rear of the freight, plowing through several freight cars.

The dead were: Reuben A. Arnold, engineer passenger train, Meadville; CONDUCTOR H. H. SCHAEFFER, freight train, Meadville; FLAGMAN GEORGE SCHATZ, freight train, Meadville; JOHN KERSH of Buffalo, stealing a ride.

The dead and injured were all brought to this city.

AT NEW YORK HOTELS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. W. Jackson, Mrs. J. M. Erdman, Fifth-avenue; E. B. Pierce and wife, Grand Union; W. M. Budenget and wife, Park-avenue; G. P. Whitlaw and wife of Santa Barbara are at the Murray Hill.

[Chicago Record:] "Women have no continuity of purpose." "Haven't they?" My cousin Laura bought a $75 diamond ring and paid for it at a time."

DEWEY'S CALLERS.

Hospitality of Mediterranean Club Extended to Olympia's Officers.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A dispatch to the World from Gibraltar says that nothing could be in more striking contrast than Admiral Dewey's surroundings at the hotel here. He came ashore at 8 o'clock this morning, his Chinese servants bringing his small steamer trunk.

The hotels here are poorer than those in small country towns in the United States. The officers of the garrison either have houses or live at mess. The hotel where the admiral is stopping is no exception. He and Lieut. Brumby have two rooms adjoining, as large as the hotel affords, such as rent for $1 a week in New York. But the rooms are quiet, and the admiral has made himself quite comfortable.

In the morning he visited the garrison library and at the Mediterranean Club, where he luncheon with Commodore Sprague. In the afternoon Maj.-Gen.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES PROMPTLY CURED.

A Sample Bottle Sent by Mail Free.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the wonderful new discovery in medicinal science, fulfills every wish in promptly curing kidney, bladder and uric acid troubles, rheumatism, and pain in the back. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands as the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, and its great cures, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention that you read this generous offer in the Los Angeles Times.

Slade, commanding the artillery forces and Maj.-Gen. Sir Henry Colville, commanding the infantry forces, garri- soned at Gibraltar, as well as other officers, called.

Among the callers was Col. Dundas, assistant adjutant-general, who was commanding the troops on the British transport from India, which gave passage to the then Capt. Dewey, who was just recovering from a surgical operation. The admiral never forgot Dundas's kindness, and the colonel has always remembered the good stories Capt. Dewey told. They met here today for the first time in thirteen years.

The hospitality of the club and of the mess was extended to the officers of the Olympia. Cooling began this morning, and the Olympia will depart September 10.

Slade, commanding the artillery forces and Maj.-Gen. Sir Henry Colville, commanding the infantry forces, garri- soned at Gibraltar, as well as other officers, called.

Among the callers was Col. Dundas, assistant adjutant-general, who was commanding the troops on the British transport from India, which gave passage to the then Capt. Dewey, who was just recovering from a surgical operation. The admiral never forgot Dundas's kindness, and the colonel has always remembered the good stories Capt. Dewey told. They met here today for the first time in thirteen years.

The hospitality of the club and of the mess was extended to the officers of the Olympia. Cooling began this morning, and the Olympia will depart September 10.

THE GOLD FIELDS.

IT'S A MONEY-MAKER.

WHITE PASS RAILROAD'S INCOME $125,000 A WEEK.

Freight Rates Three Cents a Pound and Passenger Fares a Little Over Twenty-five Cents a Mile. Dyea's Population Doubles to Fifty.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BRYAN'S AMBITION.

HE WOULD LICK AMERICAN CITIZENS INTO SHAPE.

San Francisco Turns Out to Hear the Exponent of Silver, Who is Introduced as the Next President.

He Declares the Country is Assailed by Great Dangers—How He Would Discredit Lincoln and Save the Union.

Senator Chandler Discusses National Affairs at Hampton, N. H.—He Puts Questions to "Billy" Mason—Marylanders.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Woodward's Pavilion never had so large a crowd as it did tonight, the occasion being the reception of Col. William Jennings Bryan on his second visit to San Francisco since he was a Presidential candidate. Long before sunset the streets adjacent to the pavilion began to throng with people, and as the evening wore on, the immediate vicinity of the pavilion was densely packed with people anxious to catch a passing glimpse of the great exponent of silver, or, better, to obtain admission to the building to hear the orator's remarks upon the political topics of the day.

So large was the crowd inside the great structure an hour before the Bryan party arrived, that a fire marshal was compelled to order the doors closed, leaving a howling and disappointed mob in the streets. It was with great difficulty that the squad of police kept order, so anxious seemed every one to get inside the pavilion. People begged and pleaded, men with political followings pleaded their cause, and even newspaper men with accredited cards had difficulty in obtaining privilege to pass the door-keepers.

Inside the pavilion an orderly crowd was comfortably seated on the main floor and in the galleries, and where the police were not too strict a satisfied crowd thronged the aisles. The interior of the Pavilion presented a beautiful scene. American flags were draped from the supports, and the national colors were festooned in every conceivable place. Evergreens in large wire baskets were placed in the aisles and rafters. The speakers' stand was situated in one corner of the pavilion, in plain view of every one in the house. Draped tastefully around it were the national colors. A background of red plush gave support to a standard of American flags, surmounted by an eagle of gold, in full flight.

The entrance of Bryan and the Reception Committee was the signal for a tremendous burst of applause, which grew as the party made its way through the aisles to the stand and apart for its accommodation. Seth Mann, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, introduced Bryan with a few appropriate and well-spoken words. He welcomed Bryan as the leader of the new democracy, but of the party old in principles. He likened Bryan to Washington and Jefferson, and said that because Bryan was defeated in 1896, that was no reason why he should not be elected President of the United States in 1900. Several past Presidents were defeated before their election. Mann closed by saying: "I have the honor to present to you the next President of the United States." [Great applause.]

Bryan, who was in excellent voice, prefaced his remarks on the topics of the day by thanking Mann for his kindly words, and expressing his great pleasure at once more appearing before a gathering of San Franciscans. A synopsis of his address follows: "I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

FOR THE BOYS

City Schools Open Sept. 18.

Thousands of School Books.

At Way Below Others' Prices.

No dealers will be sold—Our enterprise and ready money has put us in possession of the biggest lot of school books ever brought to this city. You'd be foolish, indeed, if you'd buy even a pencil without knowing how much we can save you. We'll presently throw them on the market

At Startling Prices.

A Rousing School Sale Starts Today.

Prices Throughout the Store Have Been Altered for This Event.

"Ah, happy childhood, with its books and toys, its merry heart and simple joys!"

What a beautiful object to look upon is a happy child. And whether the child is happy and hence pleasant to look upon, or, have about at all, depends upon the question whether it has to go to school dressed in our shoes, stockings and clothes or not.

Another mighty bargain demonstration—Another brilliant series of value giving—The magic of powerful prices is again potent. Economical parents far and wide will hail this effort with joy—It's the solution of that knotty problem—How to outfit their children for school with a little money. We expect such an enthusiastic response to our readiness as to crowd our aisles for the two weeks with eager, expectant buyers.

And You Can't Stay Away if You But Read These Particulars.

School Shoes

Here's prices that laugh at competition—So low you're apt to suspicion them if you didn't know we lived up to what we advertise.

For Boys

Boys' sizes, 2 1/2 to 5 1/2, real calf lace with toe cap, double sole, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2; school sale price, 1.48

For Youth

Youths' oil grain lace, coin toes, riveted sole, 12 to 15; school sale price, 1.23

For Misses

Misses' extra heavy dongola kid, double sole, with double spring heel, coin toes, well stitched, sizes 12 to 15; school sale price, 1.48

For Children

Child's dongola lace and button, well stitched sole, square edge, with backstay, sizes 8 to 11; school sale price, 1.13

Boys' Clothing

Every price talks—louder than any such fine garments ever had attached to them before.

13c Boys' Caps

Golf style, in corduroy—tan, navy, brown, fawn and green, with a self visor—worth 25c.

15c Boys' Shirts

Of pretty percale, with a pointed roll collar, full bodies, stayed seams, ivory buttons and wide cuffs—worth 25c.

25c Straw Sombreros

Mexican straw, with white crowns, colored brims, satin cord bands.

13c Boys' Knee Pants

Regatta style, ones—made for frolicking, romping boys.

48c Boys' Knee Pants

All wool, with double seats and knees, taped seams, a heavy waistband—choice of medium and dark shades, checks and plaids.

7 1/2c Boys' Suspenders

For youths as well—with a grip back, strong wire buckles and fancy work.

19c Boys' Underwear

Elastic ribbed shirts or drawers, with covered seams, pearl buttons and French neckband, our usual 25c garment.

98c Boys' Suits

For rough and tumble wear, in tweeds and chevrons, they're the best of the kind, and all the better for it—they'll wear lots longer.

88c Boys' Suits

The last bargain, but the best. At this price we're buying up the best of the kind, in suits, in grain ducks, chevrons, silk mixed linens, etc., in stripes and solid colors, large sailor collars, shirtd fronts and elaborately braided trimmings. The cheapest one was $1.25.

Girls' Hats, 25c.

Two great tables full—hats picked from a dozen different lines and heaped on these bargain tables at one price, Twenty-five Cents.

We leave the original selling marks on them, 49c, 69c, 89c, and a whole lot of 98c are mixed in 'mongst them. Sailors and shapes of all styles and braids, in plain and two-tone effects, (dark shades mostly,) very suitable for fall and winter school wear.

There's also a rich sprinkling of Tam o' Shanters in cloth and flannel and linen-braided and trimmed in quills, buckles and rosettes, worth 48c.

Take Your Choice, 25c.

School Hdkfs

Prices here you seldom see—Why, for instance, where in town can you buy a good child's handkerchief for a cent, colored border one? 3c It's here this sale—4c for 5 ones Remanufactured and colored bordered. 3c for 3 ones Of fine cambric—lace edged.

Child's Underwear

Vests or pants, and fleece lined, in natural shades, Jersey ribbed and well finished. A fine garment that we've hit upon as a special school price to introduce our fall line of children's underwear, sizes up to 24. 19c Sizes 26 to 30 25c

School Hose

These are prices for this occasion—Come now to avail yourself of them.

5c for 8 1/2c Hose

Black—fine ribbed, with high spliced heels and toes—absolutely fast color.

9c for 12 1/2c Hose

Black or tan, fine ribbed, with heavy double knees, high spliced heels and toes.

15c for 25c Hose

Misses' fine or Maco foot, lisle finish, sizes 5 to 9 1/2.

12 1/2c for 12 1/2c Hose

Black, fine ribbed, with double knees, spliced heels and toes, extra fine elastic and quality.

15c for Boys' Bicycle Hose

Two and one ribbed, double knees, spliced heels and toes—a strong, wearable hose.

15c for 20c Value

Misses'—black or tan, very fine with double knees, high spliced heels and toes, French shape. We warrant the color.

25c Misses' Hose

Lisle finish, double sole, elastic, spliced.

School Gloves

Child's and Misses' Gloves 12 1/2c Children's Silk Gloves 9c

School Dresses

We're ready this morning with hundreds of dresses for sacrifice—They'll be thrown on the bargain altar in the second aisle.

25c for 33c, 39c, 49c Values

Dresses of percale, chambray, gingham, lawn, some trimmed with lace, some with braids, ruffles and reverses.

39c for 69c Dresses

Of percale—in pinks and blues with embroidery ruffles.

49c Misses' 69c Dresses

Of fancy percale, with large flowing reverses, trimmed with braid and ruffles.

School Notions

Child's Round Combs

Of celluloid, in assorted colors. Always 4c, school sale price, each 2c

Children's Round Combs

With rubber backs and fancy tops, worth 3c, school sale price, each 3c

Children's Hose Supporters

With patent fasteners, lisle, elastic, worth 15c; school sale price, each 7c

Children's Hose Supporters

With lisle fasteners, rubber covered, worth 15c; school sale price, each 12c

Agate Buttons

For children's dress—144 to card, 4c

Pearl Buttons

White, with two holes, just the right size, a dozen 3c

School Belts

For misses, sizes 28c and 30c in leather, velvet and canvas, cut for school sale to 9c

Heavy 36-inch Bleached Muslin, 4 1/2c Ward.

Strong, but fine quality—Sold here for 6 1/2c usually, but 7 1/2c by others.

declared against silver until seven years ago, and the gold standard existing better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"The country is assailed by great dangers. The nation is in a perilous position. It is a perilous position, one that stimulates the people to the study of public questions, and such study must ultimately result in a good policy. I want you to believe, my friends, that I have a greater ambition than becoming President of the United States. In this great country every citizen is a sovereign where no one wears a crown. The higher ambition than to be President is to make American citizenship something better than it is now. I want other country in the world. I want to make this country what Jefferson intended it to be—equal right for all; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

is it going to cost to subdue eight million people, scattered over 1300 islands, and what are we going to get for doing it, and who is going to 'et what we get? [Thunderous applause.] "The argument has been advanced that the Philippines will be an outlet for our too rapidly-growing population. There are sixty millions to the square mile, as against twenty Americans to the square mile. The money used during the next ten years to subdue and control the Philippines could be more profitably invested by reclaiming the arid lands of this great western country. England has a colonial system, and the expense of maintaining it does not fall on one class of people, but comes out of the income tax imposed by that country."

Bryan seemed to make a telling point when he pointed out to his audience that it was but a few years ago when California was making such strenuous efforts to put a stop to oriental immigration, yet today many are crying for the annexation of the Philippines and its 8,000,000 people. [Great applause.]

Bryan said that the advancement of religious arguments for the annexation of the islands was meaner than the dollar policy of the United States. He spoke of Patrick Henry's famous "Give me liberty or give me death," and said that the spirit of freedom, liberty, and independence is around the world, and this country does not dare to crush that spirit. At the conclusion of his address, Bryan was greeted with thunderous applause, which was kept up for many minutes, only to be started again before his echo had died out. Many people rushed forward to shake his hand, and it was a long time after he had concluded his address before the pavilion was cleared.

QUESTIONS FOR MASON.

Senator William E. Chandler Discusses the Philippine Policy.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

HAMPTON (N. H.) Sept. 6.—Before the Rockingham County Republican Club Senator William E. Chandler discussed the national policy and declared his support of the administration's Philippine policy. He proposed fifteen questions on the Philippine situation for Senator William E. Mason of Illinois, who is visiting in this State, to answer. The first eight of the questions apply to the naval and military operations in the islands. The others follow:

Is President McKinley bound to maintain the sovereignty in our hands until otherwise directed by laws of Congress? Can any power but Congress, acting by law, make the Philippines a colony of the United States? Has any power but Congress the right to surrender our sovereignty in the Philippines? Has President McKinley any right to forestall the action of Congress in either direction, toward making the Philippines a colony, or surrendering them so that they cannot be made a colony if Congress so decides? Do you think the United States should do anything to prevent the partition of China among the continental powers of Europe?

Is not the maintenance of United States power in the Philippines essential to enable us to aid in preventing the dismemberment of China? What is your affirmative Philippine policy, if you have one?

MARYLAND REPUBLICANS.

Convention at Baltimore Nominates a State Ticket.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—The Maryland State Republican Convention today named the following State ticket:

Governor—Lloyd Lounes of Allegany.

Comptroller—Philip S. Lee, Goldsborough, Dorchester.

Attorney-General—Congressman John V. L. Findlay, Baltimore.

The platform declares for the gold standard, favoring the retention of the Philippines, and suppression of trusts and all combinations which create monopoly.

A LADIES' MAN.

A Product of the End of the Century Fully Discussed.

[London Globe:] On a fine day in June he is seen at his best. He has his happy moments in winter, no doubt, when he is gracefully handing tea to smartly-dressed girls in cosy boudoirs, or when in a crowded ballroom he helps his hostess to arrange the giddy cotillon, but it is in the summer that he really comes into his own. He is a dandy, he seeds a fine day, a splendid buttonhole and a large garden party, with not too many men present. Given these conditions, and how he does sparkle! How he does away! It is probably the warm sun that makes him so light-hearted, frolicsome and gay for (breathe it softly) he is very old. He does not look his age, no one would guess it, and he is sure he is uncommonly careful not to "give it away."

The fact is, the complete ladies' man is bound to be aged; he takes such a long time to develop. In his youth he was terribly afraid of women, and wanted not to be; he wanted to be a young dog, so he practised hard, with the result that he became not, indeed, a young dog, but a middle-aged ladies' man. He has never married, for he is absolutely wedded to the whole sex, and very nobly he comports himself in that trying position. He is competent to give valuable opinion on gowns, he constantly designs hats, and in an emergency he is even able to trim one. He is spruce, he is clean, he has the prettiest shade of tie, the glossiest hat, and in his frock coat he looks positively slim. Ordinary men rather than young men look at him and say: "Blinks," they cry: "Will no one go and spill feed coffee on his white waistcoat?" They rather like him, though. He is a perfect specimen of a regular property owner, a great deal of glitter, but not dangerous. He could be trusted to convey Venus across England, or to take her back to her boarding-school. Not but what he can say pretty things now and then, but he only fires off his compliments at strangers and that in the presence of a third party. He has an immense amount of small talk, has been to the Academy, knows which picture to praise and how to state all the rest. To him must we go to learn what play to patronize with our youngest daughter, what with our maiden aunt.

The ladies' man is no new product; he is a perfect specimen of the old. Malvolio was a perfect specimen of him. He makes his last passionate appeal to Olivia, who, it must be confessed, expresses very great regret for what has happened. That, unfortunately, is generally the way; your Malvolio, or Mr. Blinks, devotes himself to the fair sex, and the fair sex never makes use of him, but the moment a genuine man comes marching along, it sends the wretched chattel about his own business, or to buy a particular shade of green silk that can only be obtained at So and So's, and "You will make them send me the right sort, won't you? It is an awful shame to ask you to go, but I know you don't mind, and you are the only person I could trust. Good-by! Thank you so much," and then to the other one, "Poor, dear Mr. Blinks! but he really is most useful."

Men, who—whatever some very clever ladies may say—are far less intellectual than the ladies, are very seldom brutal to the flimsy elderly ladies' man. He may, perhaps, be told to go to the dickens when he wants to rout a man out of a comfortable corner, where he is ambushed with his "colliet" only, to make up a set of lancers. He may, perhaps, get a little chaffed in the smoking-room, but there is always some one ready to take his part. He is an inveterate enemy of the rank outsider, who would give his head to enjoy the worthy fellow's privileges, but which he will never obtain, cheek by jowl, never so wisely. The outsider may capture some little confiding heart, may perhaps, it is said, be a little more on confidential terms with women as a class.

The philologist—were there no ladies' men in the days of the doctor?—is by no means an athlete. He does not disport himself on the lawn tennis ground, far less in the cricket field, and though he is more in vogue, it must be confessed that even at this pastime he is but a poor performer. The agonies of the gentleman suffered when he found that he really must learn to ride a bicycle to keep pace with his lady friends were most poignant. He almost wept at the manner in which he bruised his shin on that disgusting little step, but his heart was much more bruised when he was seen at his ungainly exercises by a bevy of beauty who were looking on with scornful eyes. He was a perfect specimen of a regular property owner, a great deal of glitter, but not dangerous. He could be trusted to convey Venus across England, or to take her back to her boarding-school. Not but what he can say pretty things now and then, but he only fires off his compliments at strangers and that in the presence of a third party. He has an immense amount of small talk, has been to the Academy, knows which picture to praise and how to state all the rest. To him must we go to learn what play to patronize with our youngest daughter, what with our maiden aunt.

The ladies' man is no new product; he is a perfect specimen of the old. Malvolio was a perfect specimen of him. He makes his last passionate appeal to Olivia, who, it must be confessed, expresses very great regret for what has happened. That, unfortunately, is generally the way; your Malvolio, or Mr. Blinks, devotes himself to the fair sex, and the fair sex never makes use of him, but the moment a genuine man comes marching along, it sends the wretched chattel about his own business, or to buy a particular shade of green silk that can only be obtained at So and So's, and "You will make them send me the right sort, won't you? It is an awful shame to ask you to go, but I know you don't mind, and you are the only person I could trust. Good-by! Thank you so much," and then to the other one, "Poor, dear Mr. Blinks! but he really is most useful."

Men, who—whatever some very clever ladies may say—are far less intellectual than the ladies, are very seldom brutal to the flimsy elderly ladies' man. He may, perhaps, be told to go to the dickens when he wants to rout a man out of a comfortable corner, where he is ambushed with his "colliet" only, to make up a set of lancers. He may, perhaps, get a little chaffed in the smoking-room, but there is always some one ready to take his part. He is an inveterate enemy of the rank outsider, who would give his head to enjoy the worthy fellow's privileges, but which he will never obtain, cheek by jowl, never so wisely. The outsider may capture some little confiding heart, may perhaps, it is said, be a little more on confidential terms with women as a class.

The philologist—were there no ladies' men in the days of the doctor?—is by no means an athlete. He does not disport himself on the lawn tennis ground, far less in the cricket field, and though he is more in vogue, it must be confessed that even at this pastime he is but a poor performer. The agonies of the gentleman suffered when he found that he really must learn to ride a bicycle to keep pace with his lady friends were most poignant. He almost wept at the manner in which he bruised his shin on that disgusting little step, but his heart was much more bruised when he was seen at his ungainly exercises by a bevy of beauty who were looking on with scornful eyes. He was a perfect specimen of a regular property owner, a great deal of glitter, but not dangerous. He could be trusted to convey Venus across England, or to take her back to her boarding-school. Not but what he can say pretty things now and then, but he only fires off his compliments at strangers and that in the presence of a third party. He has an immense amount of small talk, has been to the Academy, knows which picture to praise and how to state all the rest. To him must we go to learn what play to patronize with our youngest daughter, what with our maiden aunt.

The ladies' man is no new product; he is a perfect specimen of the old. Malvolio was a perfect specimen of him. He makes his last passionate appeal to Olivia, who, it must be confessed, expresses very great regret for what has happened. That, unfortunately, is generally the way; your Malvolio, or Mr. Blinks, devotes himself to the fair sex, and the fair sex never makes use of him, but the moment a genuine man comes marching along, it sends the wretched chattel about his own business, or to buy a particular shade of green silk that can only be obtained at So and So's, and "You will make them send me the right sort, won't you? It is an awful shame to ask you to go, but I know you don't mind, and you are the only person I could trust. Good-by! Thank you so much," and then to the other one, "Poor, dear Mr. Blinks! but he really is most useful."

Men, who—whatever some very clever ladies may say—are far less intellectual than the ladies, are very seldom brutal to the flimsy elderly ladies' man. He may, perhaps, be told to go to the dickens when he wants to rout a man out of a comfortable corner, where he is ambushed with his "colliet" only, to make up a set of lancers. He may, perhaps, get a little chaffed in the smoking-room, but there is always some one ready to take his part. He is an inveterate enemy of the rank outsider, who would give his head to enjoy the worthy fellow's privileges, but which he will never obtain, cheek by jowl, never so wisely. The outsider may capture some little confiding heart, may perhaps, it is said, be a little more on confidential terms with women as a class.

The philologist—were there no ladies' men in the days of the doctor?—is by no means an athlete. He does not disport himself on the lawn tennis ground, far less in the cricket field, and though he is more in vogue, it must be confessed that even at this pastime he is but a poor performer. The agonies of the gentleman suffered when he found that he really must learn to ride a bicycle to keep pace with his lady friends were most poignant. He al-

THE TIMES MIRROR COMPANY.

PUBLISHERS OF THE

Los Angeles Times, Daily, Sunday, Weekly.

H. G. OTIS, President and General Manager.
 HARRY CHANDLER, Vice-President and Assistant General Manager.
 L. E. WOESER, Managing Editor.
 MARIAN OTIS-CHANDLER, Secretary.
 ALBERT MCFARLAND, Treasurer.

Office: Times Building, First and Broadway.
 Counting Room and Subscription Department, first floor.
 Editorial Rooms, third floor.
 City Editor and local news room, second floor.
 Washington Bureau—46 Post Building.
 Eastern Agents—Williams & Lawrence, 81-83 Tribune Bldg., New York; 87 Washington St., Chicago.

Founded Dec. 4, 1881. Eighteenth Year.

The Los Angeles Times

Every Morning in the Year.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT SERVICE—OVER 23,000 MILES OF LEASED WIRES AND FROM 18,500 TO 28,000 WIRED WORDS DAILY.

DAILY AND SUNDAY, 75 cents a month, or $9.00 a year; DAILY WITHOUT SUNDAY, $7.50 a year; SUNDAY, 25c; WEEKLY, $1.50.

Sworn Circulation: Daily Net Average for 1900, 18,091; Daily Net Average for 1899, 16,558; Daily Net Average for 1898, 15,131.

NEARLY 800,000 COPIES A MONTH.

Entered at the Los Angeles Postoffice for transmission as second-class mail matter.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

BURBANK, Madame Sans Gêne.
 ORPHEUM, Vaudeville.

THE TIMES AT THE RESORTS.

Patrons of THE TIMES desiring the delivery of their paper changed to any of the beach resorts are requested to leave orders at the Subscription Department, by postal card or otherwise, or with local agents as follows: A. E. Jackson, No. 236 Third street, Santa Monica; F. A. Schinnerer, Bank Building, Long Beach; S. R. Commander, foot of wharf, Redondo; Mrs. D. Samples, Terminal Island; and Mrs. E. E. McLeod, Catalina Island; Gus Knight, Jr., at Bear Valley, Pine Lake P. O. Subscribers will confer a favor by reporting to the main office any irregularity in delivery or of any inattention on the part of carriers.

SIX MONTHS' GOOD WORK IN LUZON.

In another part of today's Times is reprinted from the Review of Reviews for September the principal portions of an article by Hon. John Barrett, entitled, "The Half Year of War With Aguinaldo." Mr. Barrett is a Democrat and was formerly United States Minister to Siam. He has been a close student of oriental affairs, and a personal observer, to some extent, of the Luzon campaign. His article is an intelligent, comprehensive and generally accurate review of the situation in that island. It is a connected narrative, covering with consecutive detail the military operations from the outbreak of February 4 down to August 21.

The delay in the negotiation and ratification of the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain is regarded by Mr. Barrett as one of the causes principally responsible for the conditions which led up to the final outbreak. The restraint placed upon our soldiers by the requirements of military discipline, and their consequent self-control under the most exasperating circumstances, led the Filipinos to underestimate the fighting qualities of our men, and to deceive themselves with the idea that the Americans were cowards. In this they were speedily undeceived, as all know.

Mr. Barrett takes the ground—which may be disputed, however—that the early fighting immediately about Manila was the one really great battle of the present war, and says truly that the Filipinos offered stronger resistance than they have ever offered since. This, in his opinion, was due to the fact that they had not discovered the difference between the Spanish and the American way of fighting. "Never since," he adds, "have they held their ground as they did on February 5, and hence they have not suffered such great losses."

The article gives a fairly correct, though condensed, account of the military operations following the outbreak, appertains credit among officers and soldiers and closes with a careful and intelligent summarization of the whole situation. Briefly stated, his conclusions are:

- (1) We are in the Philippines as the result of meeting unavoidable responsibilities, and cannot retreat without shame.
- (2) The conflict, which was precipitated by the Filipinos, has been carried on under the most adverse conditions possible.
- (3) Despite these adverse conditions, the Americans have been uniformly victorious in all engagements.
- (4) Our forces now hold all the most important commercial and strategic points in the islands.
- (5) Therefore, it is reasonable to suppose that when the dry season comes again, the war can be speedily brought to an end, permanent peace established, and good government instituted, "eventually leading to as large a degree of autonomy as the Filipinos prove themselves able to undertake."

These are sound conclusions. Spaniards are flocking to see Dewey and the Olympia at Gibraltar. Their curiosity is quite natural, under the circumstances; and they are more fortunate in seeing Dewey at Gibraltar than were their compatriots who saw him, to their sorrow, in Manila Bay some sixteen months ago.

The inhabitants of St. Louis, Kansas City and the Mississippi Valley generally are having the hottest weather they have had for years. But they should be patient, and seek consolation in the thought that the festive blizzard is preparing to sail from his hair a few weeks hence.

A TALK OF THE FAR EAST.

The Chamber of Commerce has decided to extend an invitation to Hon. John Barrett, late United States Minister to Siam, to speak before it in the near future. Mr. Barrett is personally familiar with the Far East, including the Philippine Islands, and has written and lectured extensively upon those countries. He is a firm believer in the manifest destiny of America—otherwise expansion—and has broad and intelligent views concerning the magnificent possibilities within the grasp of the United States, and particularly of the Pacific Coast, in the matter of extending American trade in the Orient. He has at ready command a mass of facts and figures bearing upon the commercial phases of the oriental question, and if he appears before our Chamber of Commerce to speak to the business men of Los Angeles, he may be counted upon to impart very valuable information.

Senator Chandler of New Hampshire has propounded a series of direct questions for the anti-expansionists in general, and Senator McKim, particularly, to answer. These questions relate to the Philippines, and it will be the "aunties" to furnish satisfactory answers to them. For instance: "Is the President bound to maintain the sovereignty in our hands until otherwise directed by laws of Congress?" And again: "Can any power but Congress, acting by law, make the Philippines a colony of the United States?" Or: "Has the President any right to foretell the action of Congress in either direction toward making the Philippines a colony, or surrendering them so that they cannot be made a colony if Congress so decides?" Other questions almost equally puzzling are propounded by Senator Chandler, but these will do for a starter. We pause for a reply.

Henry Clews, in his financial review for the week ended September 2, notes the continuance of a strong general tone in the New York market, and adds:

"Confidence in a broader and more active market, during the autumn is almost universal. This confidence is based upon the extraordinary wave of prosperity which extends over the whole country, and which as yet shows no signs of having spent its force. The iron and kindred industries are making a wonderful record; our whole harvest falls to show a parallel. Raw materials, such as pig iron and copper, show advances from lowest prices of from 50 to 100 per cent. Finished products, of course, show no such rise; but in many instances the price of goods in condition with buyers, delivery being not so much to have checked business, and there has been a remarkable absence of speculative buying."

One of the most striking evidences of the general prosperity which prevails throughout the country just at present is the scarcity of labor. A Michigan paper states that the farmers of the Northwest are complaining loudly of the scarcity of men to work in the harvest fields. Wages are offered ranging from $2.50 a day and board for common harvest hands to $6 a day for threshing-machine engineers, and even at these figures it is well-nigh impossible to get men enough to do the work. Everybody able to work seems to be having something else to do that is more congenial or more profitable than harvest field work.

J. G. Johnson of Kansas is to be the active manager of the Democratic National Committee in all its branches until after the adjournment of the next Democratic National Convention. Johnson has got a big job on hand, and is morally certain to "get it in the neck" before the expiration of his laborious but not necessarily lucrative term of office.

Chicago is experiencing "the longest dry period since the great fire in 1871."

No rain has fallen for two or three days, the grass is turning brown as in winter, and the leaves of trees are falling. One would hardly expect to find such a state of affairs in a city where "let's irrigate" is so very common a remark as between man and man.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

[The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents without holding themselves responsible for writers' opinions. Be brief, write plainly, state clearly. The space of 200 words, or the average, is sufficient for the expression of an idea. No attention paid to anonymous communications.]

"The Low Green Tent."

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 6.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In the felicitous address that President McKinley made on Tuesday at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia he introduced a quotation from Whittier's beautiful poem, "Snow Bound," as follows:

"The circle is narrowing. As years roll on, one after another is not present at our reunions, but they are accounted for. They have gone to join their great majority of old comrades who sleep tonight."

"... beneath the low green tent whose curtain never outward swings."

Whittier wrote these lines in regard to his elder sister:

"A full rich nature free to trust, truthful, and almost sternly just."

But who, from an unhappy marriage suffered much in this life. Whittier says of her that she in the wearisome years was always a light disguise. The secret of self-sacrifice. O, heart sore tried! Thou hast the best.

That heaven itself could give thee rest: Rest from all bitter thoughts and things! How many a poor one's blessing went forth from beneath the low green tent. Whose curtain never outward swings."

It seems to me that the last two lines quoted by President McKinley in his reference to the dead soldiers, form a figure most touching and appropriate to those who sleep their last sleep in "the low green tent."

J. C. FLETCHER.

BROKE IN TWO.

Seven Persons Killed by Freight Train Accident.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.] WILLIAMSON (W. Va.) Sept. 6.—Freight train No. 59, on the Norfolk and Western road, broke in two this morning, and the sections came together in Dingess tunnel. The killed: FRANK R. ARCHER, brakeman, Kenova.

CHARLES BOOTH, brakeman, Wayne.

JOHN CHAFFIN, fireman, Dingess. Four tramps.

CORN FOR CATHAY.

ONE of the inevitable results of American conquest in the Far East will be the opening of new markets for American products, agricultural, as well as mechanical. In China and Japan, more than in the Philippines, will this be most noteworthy. The only reason why they have not been, in the past, greater consumers of American cereals, products, is because nobody has taken any great pains to work up a trade. It was one of those cases where "everybody's business was nobody's business."

The increase in China's consumption of American wheat flour is seen in fact. In 1886 a prominent shipping house in San Francisco (Case, Heiser & Co.) failed for a large amount and suspended business. One of the clerks in that firm was a young man named George C. Weller. Not caring to return to the East, he wrote a letter over to Augustine Heard & Co., of Canton, and received a favorable reply, promising a fairly good salary. Mr. Weller had $1500 in cash at the time, and not desiring to carry the money with him, bought 300 barrels of flour, and took it over on the same ship. He sold it at a profit, and the house of Heard & Co. into which Mr. Weller was admitted as a partner in 1888—began to import foreign flour by each incoming vessel; but the Chinese are slow beginners, and as late as 1891, the total export of flour from San Francisco to all Chinese ports was only a trifle in excess of $15,000. Since then the demand has grown so rapidly that hardly a ship goes out with less flour in her hold than the total export of 1891, and the Crown Mills of Stockton, as long back as 1892, shipped over 1000 tons of their product on a single steamer.

As the trade in wheat staple has constantly increased since that period, the presumption is that still heavier shipments have since been made by that flourishing concern. If a trade in wheat flour can be worked up in that manner, why cannot a market be created there for the several products of Indian corn? The Japanese and Chinese do not use it now, for the simple reason that they are not familiar with it. They will have to become educated up to it, just as plucky little George Weller educated them up to a use of wheat flour, over forty years ago. If we wait for them to take hold of it, of their own free volition, the progress in that direction will be slow. The corn of the Monopolian is nothing if not conservative. It took forty years to educate the "Heathen Chinese" up to the use of wheat flour, and the great corn-growing States of Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska, still California would catch her due share of the trade and vastly increase her acreage of this staple.

If the port of Galveston could raise her exports of corn from $2500 in 1894 to $4,000,000 in 1898, there would be some future for San Francisco's export of the same staple; but it will never grow by merely talking about it. It takes money to buy land, says the old adage; and corn is not given away like Sunday-school tracts. It takes capital to build up a trade in this great staple. I have indicated, I have indicated, but I believe the plan a very feasible one if managed by competent persons. None of us can make the project a success. M.

PRESS POINTS.

[Chicago Record.] When a Kansas man, who is otherwise truthful, gets to talking about the corn crop, the greatest amount of charity should be exercised by his hearers.

[Chicago Times-Herald.] The yacht Shamrock has on her blinnace the Irish means "God Save Ireland." They few Irishmen in this country would have known it if they had not been told.

[Columbus Dispatch.] Mr. McLean's speech of acceptance was shorter than any of the speeches of the defeated candidates. Mr. McLean doesn't have much to say. He has some things else that talks for him, and talks quite eloquently, too.

[Toledo Blade.] When the Ohio Democratic Union is not doing any good, Griggs, because he lives in New Jersey, "the home of trusts," they should also have denounced the Democratic Legislature of that State for enacting the law under which the trusts flourish.

[Chicago Journal.] The discovery is announced that Shamrock has a feel that will stick in the mud at a depth of twenty-five feet. It is easy to see where the yacht is leading. People will soon be sailing around on gigantic knife-blades, balanced vertically and sailed by the aid of balloons.

[Chicago News.] If one is to believe the story of the reception of Tanner's nominations for commissions in the volunteer army, his popularity with the administration is not deeply "rooted." And at that the administration only represents the feeling of the people of the State of Illinois.

[Milwaukee Sentinel.] Once or twice every year some clergyman who has found obscurity through preaching divine truth of religion, gains notoriety by preaching infamous falsehoods of government, which merely indicates that there are more rascals seeking office than there are looking for eternal salvation.

[Baltimore American.] Gen. Mercer is an expert in reaching quick conclusions. He has retreated from his first position, and now thinks Estey may have written the bordereau, but Dreyfus certainly stole it. Mercer bolters express much dissatisfaction with the time labor and truth finish with him he may be looking at the Dreyfus case from the right point of view.

[Chicago News.] The revolution in San Domingo is over. The revolutionists, having driven out the fellows who revolutionized some years ago, are now holding down the offices until such time as new set of revolutionists shall find the proper hour to start new wheels of insurrection. Bascals and golf do not take well in San Domingo. Revolutions are more exciting and more people can play at the game.

[Washington Times.] The outlook for a campaign of peace and prosperity in Kentucky is not as effulgent as it might be. The election officers in 119 counties wherever they may be unfriendly to Goebel, it is said, are to be changed in his interest. The Brown bolters express much dissatisfaction with this proposition, and are freely talking about going to the polls with double-barreled arguments, as well as revolvers and knives, as an evidence of good faith.

[Inter Ocean.] The official report of the State Employment Office in Chicago for the two weeks ending August 12, has just been published by the

THE MAN OF THE WEEK.

HENRY CLAY EVANS.

No doubt the Commissioner of Pensions, Henry Clay Evans, of Tennessee, will receive some attention at the hands of the national encampment of the G.A.R. at Philadelphia. There has been a distinct murmur against some of his rulings in pension cases, and some of the "old boys in blue" have complained bitterly.

Mr. Evans is not a Southerner by birth, having been born in Pennsylvania, in Juniata county, fifty-six years ago. He received a school and academic education, and later the education of business. He is popular in his own town, has twice been chosen Mayor of Chattanooga, and in 1890 was elected to Congress over a very popular Democrat. It was a very close race, 18,441 votes being cast for Evans and 18,353 for Bates. It is claimed that he was elected Governor of Tennessee five years ago, but was snatched out. His friends wanted him placed on the ticket with McKinley in 1896, and he had a strong following in the convention.

State Bureau of Labor Statistics. It shows that in two weeks 3836 men applied for work, and that 736 secured it. In the same two weeks 846 women applied for employment, and 421 secured it. The report of the South Side office for four weeks shows that 2551 men and 415 women applied for employment, and that 970 men and 293 women secured it.

[Pittsburgh Dispatch.] A Washington special to a New York paper declares that no women are wanted by officials at Washington in Federal work, because, as asserted by heads of departments "men can stand the strain better." It has been proved to the satisfaction of all political office-seekers that men can stand the strain of six hours' work per diem in the departments most heroically, but there have also been several evidences that women can do the same—if they have political pulls to help them do it.

[Pioneer Press.] Trust history repeats itself in the case of the tinplate organization. Feeling secure in its control of all the established plants in the country, it has put up prices to enlarge its profits—put them up to such a figure that outside capital has been tempted to enter the field. Several big companies have been organized to operate new plants independent of the trust; and as the trusts are not likely to have no watered stock on which to earn dividends they may be able to teach the trust a needed lesson as to the folly of limitless greed.

[Kansas City Star.] President Kruger has found a Psalm which he thinks describes exactly the rapacious attitude of England toward the Transvaal. But if Lord Salisbury will search the scriptures with proper diligence he may also find a Psalm that will fully justify the folly of limitless greed.

[Toledo Blade.] When the Ohio Democratic Union is not doing any good, Griggs, because he lives in New Jersey, "the home of trusts," they should also have denounced the Democratic Legislature of that State for enacting the law under which the trusts flourish.

[Chicago Journal.] The discovery is announced that Shamrock has a feel that will stick in the mud at a depth of twenty-five feet. It is easy to see where the yacht is leading. People will soon be sailing around on gigantic knife-blades, balanced vertically and sailed by the aid of balloons.

[Chicago News.] If one is to believe the story of the reception of Tanner's nominations for commissions in the volunteer army, his popularity with the administration is not deeply "rooted." And at that the administration only represents the feeling of the people of the State of Illinois.

[Milwaukee Sentinel.] Once or twice every year some clergyman who has found obscurity through preaching divine truth of religion, gains notoriety by preaching infamous falsehoods of government, which merely indicates that there are more rascals seeking office than there are looking for eternal salvation.

[Baltimore American.] Gen. Mercer is an expert in reaching quick conclusions. He has retreated from his first position, and now thinks Estey may have written the bordereau, but Dreyfus certainly stole it. Mercer bolters express much dissatisfaction with the time labor and truth finish with him he may be looking at the Dreyfus case from the right point of view.

[Chicago News.] The revolution in San Domingo is over. The revolutionists, having driven out the fellows who revolutionized some years ago, are now holding down the offices until such time as new set of revolutionists shall find the proper hour to start new wheels of insurrection. Bascals and golf do not take well in San Domingo. Revolutions are more exciting and more people can play at the game.

[Washington Times.] The outlook for a campaign of peace and prosperity in Kentucky is not as effulgent as it might be. The election officers in 119 counties wherever they may be unfriendly to Goebel, it is said, are to be changed in his interest. The Brown bolters express much dissatisfaction with this proposition, and are freely talking about going to the polls with double-barreled arguments, as well as revolvers and knives, as an evidence of good faith.

[Inter Ocean.] The official report of the State Employment Office in Chicago for the two weeks ending August 12, has just been published by the Events in Society.

[Communications intended for the society columns of THE TIMES must be signed, and must be written on only one side of the page. Anonymous announcements of society events, personal, etc., and those which, because they are written on both sides of a page, have to be rewritten, will receive no attention.]

A very happy event, which is vouchsafed to but few in this life, was celebrated Tuesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Young at their home, No. 218 Pavilion Place. It was the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The guests included many relatives and friends of the family. The house was decorated with roses and foliage, presenting an attractive appearance. The guests were entertained with speeches and vocal and instrumental music. Mr. and Mrs. Young received many handsome gifts, characteristic of the anniversary.

Miss Katherine J. Winkler and Charles W. Edwards were married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Will A. Knight officiated, and the ceremony took place at his home on West Thirty-first street. Only relatives were present. Miss Lizette Y. G. Winkler attended the bride, and John H. Lowe assisted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will make their home in this city.

Miss Blanche Smith of No. 995 West Third-second street, entertained on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, a group of friends at dinner. The guests included members of the Alpha Rho Sorority, and was in honor of Miss Effie L. Standee. The guests were Miss Effie Standee, Mabel Yerxa, Ruth Brown, Lynne Eldridge, Sara Miller, Irene Griscom, Frances Thompson and Edith Paddison.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Miss Della Fraisher has returned from a year's visit in the East. Mrs. Garden Macleod is spending two weeks in the mountains near Santa Barbara.

Miss Estelle Cook is spending her vacation at her home in Astoria, Mrs. Lomis H. Rucker has gone to San Francisco to meet Maj. Rucker, Fourth Cavalry, who has just returned from Manila on sick leave.

Mrs. W. S. Oliver and her daughter, Miss Jacqueline Oliver, who have recently returned from a five weeks' stay at Catalina, have removed to No. 110 South Flower street.

A lawn fête will be given at the Brownaber Home School this evening by members of the Post Graduate Club.

"Dog-Boy" Committed to the Asylum from Tombstone.

[Tombstone Prospector.] On Tuesday last a monstrosity in the shape of a "dog-boy" was brought before Probate Judge Bradley to be examined as to its sanity, with a view of committing the prodigy to the asylum or some institution where he will receive the proper care and attention. The "dog-boy" is nearly 16 years of age, and named Rudolph Preclardo. Nothing is known of the history of the unfortunate, further than that he was born at Nogales, Mex., and both his parents are dead. A Mexican woman, a friend of the boy, has been taking charge of him, and he has been living at Nogales. Being poor and having a large family to support, the woman turned her charge over to the county.

The "dog-boy" is an imbecile, cannot speak but one or two intelligent words, is blind, and indeed an object of pity. Though possessing perfect human features, he has the characteristics of a dog, barking and baying like a canine, and an inclination or tendency to go about on all fours. When standing his body bends over as if more disposed to navigate on hands and feet. When left alone he crouches in a heap and rests in a haunched position; the palms of his hands show much wear by constant use as means of moving about; his angle is peculiarly formed, enabling him, at will, to move his feet in an unnatural manner. Being fed some milk, the "dog-boy" drank it in gulps. At intervals he barks uninterruptedly for a few moments, and then moans piteously, while occasionally following grunts and guttural noises. While not repulsive-looking, the creature's helplessness and pitiful condition cannot fail to leave its impression. He will be committed to the asylum at Phoenix.

Demand for American Apples. NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—American apples are in such great demand in Germany this year that shipments have commenced one month earlier than usual. The first consignment left on the steamship Lahn, and was from the Hudson River district. Last year 22,551 barrels were sent abroad. This year it is expected the shipments will reach 100,000 barrels.

Exhibit and free samples at Lutz's Drug Store this week. THE ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO., Telephone Main 223.

Exhibit and free samples at Lutz's Drug Store this week.

THE ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO., Telephone Main 223.

Exhibit and free samples at Lutz's Drug Store this week.

THE ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO., Telephone Main 223.

Exhibit and free samples at Lutz's Drug Store this week.

THE ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO., Telephone Main 223.

Exhibit and free samples at Lutz's Drug Store this week.

THE ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO., Telephone Main 223.

The Times

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Sept. 6. (Reported by George E. Franklin, Local Forecast Official.) At 5 o'clock a.m., the thermometer registered 29.8; at 5 p.m., 29.8. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 28 deg. and 70 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 84 per cent.; 5 p.m., 77 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., south, velocity 1 mile; 5 p.m., west, velocity 3 miles. Maximum temperature, 79 deg.; minimum temperature, 22 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

DRY BULB TEMPERATURE.

Los Angeles 82
San Diego 80
Portland 82

Weather Conditions.—The pressure is increasing west of the plateau regions, the change being quite marked in the mountain regions and on the North Pacific Slope. It has fallen slightly in the Upper Missouri Valley and in Colorado. The temperature has risen on the North Pacific Coast and at Los Angeles and vicinity, where it is 10 deg. warmer than yesterday morning. It is still materially in the mountain regions and in Central California. From Denver eastward, through the Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio Valleys, the highest temperatures of the season are reported. Omaha and St. Louis showing, respectively, 100 deg. and 102 deg. General rain is reported from Washington and Oregon to the coast.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy tonight, followed by fair, moderately warm weather Thursday; north to west winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6, 5 p.m.—Weather conditions and general forecast: The following maximum temperatures were reported from stations in California today:
Eureka 80
San Diego 82
Fresno 86
Sacramento 84
Los Angeles 78
Red Bluff 88
San Luis Obispo 74
San Francisco 74

San Francisco's maximum temperature, 64 deg.; minimum, 52 deg.; mean, 58 deg. The pressure continues to rise over the Pacific Slope. An area of high pressure over the northern half of the Pacific Slope, the Pacific probably cause fair weather for several days over the country west of the Rocky Mountains. The temperature is rising over the Pacific Slope. An area of high pressure over the northern half of the Pacific Slope, the Pacific probably cause fair weather for several days over the country west of the Rocky Mountains.

Forecasts made at San Francisco for thirty hours, ending at midnight, September 7:

For Northern California: Fair Thursday; continued warm weather; warmer in the San Joaquin Valley; northerly winds, westerly on the coast.

For Southern California: Fair Thursday; light northerly winds.

For Arizona: Fair Thursday.

For San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Thursday; warmer in the forenoon; fresh westerly winds, with fog at night.

The Times' Weather Record.—Observations made at 1 p.m. and midnight, daily:

September 6—1 p.m. Midnight:
Barometer 29.8 29.5
Thermometer 74 64
Humidity 85 88
Weather Clear Clear
Maximum temperature, 24 hours 78
Minimum temperature, 24 hours 65

Tide Table.—For San Pedro High. Low.

Thursday, Sept. 7. 10:17 a.m. 3:44 a.m.
Friday, " 8. 10:35 p.m. 4:18 p.m.
Saturday, " 9. 10:53 a.m. 4:44 a.m.
Sunday, " 10. 11:20 a.m. 4:51 a.m.
Monday, " 11. 11:48 a.m. 5:00 a.m.
Tuesday, " 12. 12:14 p.m. 5:52 p.m.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

If any man doubts the continued increase in vital prosperity in this city and contiguous territory, his attention is called to the result of Tuesday's work in enrolling students for the new term in the Los Angeles Normal. The increase of 195 students over the enrollment of last year tells a cheering tale. It is interesting, also, to know that nearly all of the student number are from Southern California, or rather, the territory which the Los Angeles school should serve. Here is a total of 515 young men and women, almost wholly native born, representing the homes of those who have cast their lot with Southern California, a force of new blood and brain power such as gives promise of great things for any possible occasion and that may arise. The public school is the compass of the ships of state.

All along the line of the seven southern counties the people are giving ring to the vote of their faith in the land by voting to issue bonds for permanent public improvements. Ontario has just voted a tax to increase school-room facilities, and Orange county has just voted to issue $100,000 in bonds with which to erect a new courthouse. The promised abundant rains of this fall will fortify such excellent faith and thus place the advantages of Southern California before all the world on the record of what has been accomplished after a series of dry years, the longest on record. The evidence of intelligent judgment resulting from the vote of the National Educational Association is working throughout the East, and such facts as the foregoing are sure to attract thinking men and women who look this way to escape the rigors of eastern winters.

The San Bernardino County Horticultural Commission, in its report for August, among other helpful facts states that the enormous amount of 3547 inches of water for irrigating orchards has been developed in that county in the past year. In telling how this was done the report says: "But the growers, not satisfied to trust to luck to keep the orchards going, began to look elsewhere for water, which led to the boring of numerous wells and tunnels, putting in pumping plants, and laying miles of pipe line, thereby turning what looked like a year of failure into a year of unparalleled prosperity." The Times believes that what has been done in that county can be duplicated in other counties, and that the amount of water developed is but a tithe of what can be developed with sufficient capital and determined purpose. "Learn to dig and irrigate" should be the motto of all Southern California fruit-growers.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.

Horse and Buggy for Pastor of Sacred Heart Church.

Last evening some twenty-five gentlemen invaded the parochial residence of Father McAuliffe in East Los Angeles, and presented him with a good horse and buggy. John Kenelly made the presentation speech, and the recipient of the gift responded with words of gratefulness.

The party then adjourned to the dining-room, where the pastor was again surprised by a sight of the past provided in his honor. Speeches were made by D. M. McGarry, L. A. Grant, John J. Rodkin, P. J. McCarthy, Hugh J. Smith, William Hamilton, Edward Tynan, T. J. Cunningham and Chris Hickson. Rev. Joseph Doyle, a coworker with Father McAuliffe, was also present and made a witty speech, at the conclusion of which the company joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

BATTERY D BENEFIT.

THEATRICAL TALENT OF A HIGH ORDER ENGAGED.

Felix Morris Coming—Mme. Johnstone Bishop Will Sing—Souvenir Badges and Programme to Be Placed on Sale Soon.

The War Board is assured of some exceedingly fine theatrical talent for its Battery D benefit, which the Orpheum is to give next week. Felix Morris, the distinguished actor, will be on the programme, and will present one and perhaps two of his famous one-act comedies. To make its contribution of talent notable, the Orpheum management here wired to President Meyerfield at San Francisco asking if Felix Morris could not be allowed to come here during next week, instead of two weeks later, as was originally intended by the booking agent of the Orpheum circuit. The response was prompt and satisfactory.

Probably no greater favorite than Felix Morris ever came to the vaudeville theaters of the Coast. The strength and charm of his art found ready appreciation from vaudeville audiences two years ago, and he proved to be a mighty magnet, from the box-office point of view. In San Francisco, he was even more pronounced than here. Therefore to cut into the middle of a phenomenally successful engagement in the Bay City is no slight sacrifice for the Orpheum people to make. But they have done it, and Morris will play next week in the Battery D benefit. A playlet, "The Soldier's Boy," is considered to be one of the best in his large repertoire. He has eight comedies available for production in vaudeville. His company comprises five artists.

The badges prepared under the War Board's direction will soon be put on sale. Every patriotic citizen in the city will take pride in wearing one of these insignia of honor from this time until the day the members of Battery D arrive. From their sale the War Board expects that at least $500 will be realized.

The souvenir programme is now being printed. It is to be a thing of beauty and a memento of the occasion worthy to be preserved. The members of Battery D will be pictured on its pages. The officers will be given pictorial representation. Distinguished military men, members of the Red Cross, portraits of Modjeska, Felix Morris, Mary Van Buren, T. Daniel Frawley and other notable of the dramatic fraternity will be included among the special features in this souvenir programme. A history of the battery will be printed in the programme. Literary and pictorial features will be among the things to make the souvenir programme a splendid memento of this notable occasion. The programme is to be printed for the War board, free of cost to them, the 500 copies being turned over to the board absolutely gratis, so that the profit of their sale at the benefit performance will be as large as possible.

There are to be a number of extra musical features in this benefit performance. The orchestra of the Burbank and Los Angeles theaters will be drawn upon to augment the Orpheum orchestra. The musicians thus volunteer their services. Mme. Genevra Johnston-Bishop will sing, and other notable of the local musical world will contribute their voices.

Will A. Harris will be called upon for a brief address of welcome between acts during the benefit performance. The City Council will be asked to purchase a box or boxes, the money to be paid by the Councilmen individually. They will undoubtedly accede to the invitation to "buy."

A BARBER'S TROUBLES.

Horsefield on Trial for Alleged Assault on Little Girls.

The trial of Harry H. Horsefield, a gray-haired East Side barber, on the charge of indecent assault upon eight-year-old Inez Clarke, was commenced in Justice Morgan's court yesterday. In Justice Morgan's court yesterday. The greater part of the day was spent in impaneling a jury. It was late in the afternoon when the jury was completed, and the taking of testimony was begun. By 5 o'clock the evidence for the prosecution was all in, and an adjournment was then taken till 9 o'clock this morning.

The alleged offense for which Horsefield is being tried was committed nearly a year ago. The defendant's attorney, Hugh J. Crawford, tried to get the complaint dismissed under the statute of limitations, but the action having been commenced within a year from the date of the commission of the alleged crime, the motion to dismiss on technical grounds was denied. According to the testimony of the little girl who alleged to have been assaulted by the barber, he took indecent liberties with her person while he was cutting her hair in September of last year. Corroborative testimony was given by the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clarke, and Mrs. Fanny Best, mother of another little girl with whom Horsefield is alleged to have tampered. The assault on Mabel Best is alleged to have been made while the barber was teaching the child to ride a bicycle. A complaint against Horsefield on account of his conduct toward the little Best girl is also pending. The parents of the children who were the victims of Horsefield's alleged misconduct, did not learn of the occurrence until long after the fact. The action having been commenced within a year from the date of the commission of the alleged crime, the motion to dismiss on technical grounds was denied.

Much feeling against Horsefield has been expressed in East Los Angeles on account of the tales told about him by the little girls. A boycott has been started against his barber shop, and he has to an extent been subjected to social ostracism. Horsefield is a married man of respectable appearance. He denies his guilt and seems to feel the disgrace brought upon him keenly. His wife who is counted upon as a material witness for the defense, was too ill to be in court yesterday.

Service Men's Commander.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Gen. J. C. Wiley of Pennsylvania was elected commander of the society known as the Service Men of the Spanish War at a meeting of the charter members of that organization, held in the city last evening, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Col. Robert W. Leonard, who was recently appointed lieutenant-colonel of the Twenty-ninth Regiment, U.S.V. Infantry. Gen. Wiley is one of the best known officers in the National Guard service in Pennsylvania.

Do the Birds Sing

Sweetly for you, or has your long borne illness or your seemingly incurable disease made the whole world look gloomy and unpleasant? It matters not. Be brave, there is still another loophole of escape. It is a fact that in many just cases as yours the carefully considered, thoroughly modern and scientific treatments of the Home-Alo Medical Institute, 245 S. Spring St., have accomplished complete cures. Nor is that all. Listen! The entire charge of these eminent physicians for consultation, examination and medicine is only $5. Does this not renew hope within you? Visit them at once, take the cure, and tomorrow the birds will be singing sweetly once again.

Special Care Given to Mail Orders.

THEATRICAL TALENT OF A HIGH ORDER ENGAGED.

Felix Morris Coming—Mme. Johnstone Bishop Will Sing—Souvenir Badges and Programme to Be Placed on Sale Soon.

Silverwood

HATS that embody character. HATS that give satisfaction.

ALWAYS in all points correct. ALWAYS up to date.

THESE are the factors THAT are making them famous

SEE our new fall Derby SEE our swell Soft Hats

The very finest quality.....$3.00

The next best and thoroughly dependable.....$2.50

IN EITHER STORE

124 South Spring St.

221

F. B. SILVERWOOD.

Mail Orders Filled.

BOSTON DRY GOODS STORE.

Agent Butterick Patterns.

Nautical Books.

Know Your Own Ship By Thomas Walton.....$2.00

Practical Navigation By William Allingham.....$1.50

Elementary Seamanship By D. W. Barker.....$2.00

Latitude and Longitude By W. J. Miller, C.E.....$1.00

Parker's, 245 South Broadway.

(Near Public Library.)

Largest, most varied and most complete stock of books west of Chicago.

School Eyes.

The right of the child to good eyesight is within your keeping.

A lifetime of thankfulness awaits you in making use now of the best appliances for correct vision.

Crystal Lenses, a pr., $1.

J. P. DELANEY, 809 S. EXPERT

Spring Street OPTICIAN

What Is Maizeline?

Ask Your Grocer!

If you are particular about the quality of the wine you drink, get the "Peerless" brand—it's the best. Port, Sherry, Angelica, Muscat and Riesling 25c a bottle.

Southern California Wine Co., 220 W. Fourth St. and 211 W. Second St.

Skin Specialist.

Removes permanently pimples, freckles, and tan. Cures eczema, acne, pimples, red veins and oily skin. Guarantees all work. Gives city references. Consultation free.

MISS S. V. HEROLD, The Milton, room 19, 534 1/2 S. Broadway

YOUR FACE ON A RADIO

Send photo (cabinet preferred) and receive, post paid, latest size portrait. This offer is only made to those who send their photos to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

BOSTON DRY GOODS STORE

239 S. Broadway, Opposite City Hall, Los Angeles.

School time approaches with its many attendant cares for mothers of romping boys, but today's items will do much to lessen the trouble of fitting them up. We wish to close out our entire line of boys' shirt waists and blouses. they will go quickly, as we have marked

all boys' waists at cost and in many cases less than cost to manufacture. we carry only the following well-known makes:

star, mothers' friend and puritan.

boys' blouse and shirt waists in line percales, with byron and sailor collars, worth 25 to 35c

on sale at.....20c

all the regular 50c grade blouses and shirt waists in the "star" and puritan brands.....35c

at.....35c

regular 75c grades of the celebrated "star" shirt waist, both laundered and unlaundered, at.....50c

all of our "star" and "mothers' friend" waists, with detached collars, both white and colored, sold at 1.00 to 1.25 sale price.....75c

all of our fine silk striped flannel and madras blouses, formerly sold at 1.50 and 1.75, on sale.....1.00 misses' fancy striped silk blouses, as large as 10 years, formerly sold at 2.50 sale price.....1.50

Miss Kinney, formerly with the Parisian Cloak and Suit Co., can now be found in our dressmaking parlors on the third floor.

Mail Orders Filled.

BOSTON DRY GOODS STORE.

Agent Butterick Patterns.

H. JEVNE

Superior Bakestuffs.

Do you know how good our Bakestuffs really are? Have you ever tried them? If you knew how much care we take to have our Bakestuffs just right you could easily see why they are so good.

Always the newest things in the way of Cakes and Baked Goodies.

Smoke Jevne's Fine Cigars.

208-210 S. Spring St.—Wilcox Building.

Do You Filter Your Water?

If not, do you realize the risk you run of contracting disease? And this when a few dollars will secure the simplest and best Filter ever placed on the market. Family sizes $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00.

JAS. W. HELLMAN, 157 to 161 North Spring St.

What Is Maizeline?

Ask Your Grocer!

If you are particular about the quality of the wine you drink, get the "Peerless" brand—it's the best. Port, Sherry, Angelica, Muscat and Riesling 25c a bottle.

Southern California Wine Co., 220 W. Fourth St. and 211 W. Second St.

Skin Specialist.

Removes permanently pimples, freckles, and tan. Cures eczema, acne, pimples, red veins and oily skin. Guarantees all work. Gives city references. Consultation free.

MISS S. V. HEROLD, The Milton, room 19, 534 1/2 S. Broadway

YOUR FACE ON A RADIO

Send photo (cabinet preferred) and receive, post paid, latest size portrait. This offer is only made to those who send their photos to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us. Send your photo to us.

While the American forces had been hard at work in the north and east for the last four months, the insurgents had been massing and fortifying them-with its area as large as that of Maine, is not destined to hold out against American control, if good judgment and diplomacy are employed in negotiations with the local sultans, or chiefs.

Gen. Bates has just gone to the Sul pincoit, assisted by such men as Harwell, Bourne, Penrose, Farrell, O'Brien, Ellis, Whiting and Cabell, has been conducted with marked success in view of the difficult conditions. At the number of field surgeons should be greatly increased. Parents with sons in the men preferred, however, to resist for continued service until the termination of the war that Gen. Otis was able to recruit from them two additional regiments. The devotion of the nation for the devotion of her defenders was fittingly expressed by the President.

the School of Oratory in Boston, the leading school of its kind in New England, and Prof. Roberts has had two years of post-graduate work in the same institution. He is also a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University, where he was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The department will open about September 15.

S.S. The Drowsy
Purely Vegetable, and is the only remedy guaranteed to contain no dangerous minerals.
Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

S.S. The Drowsy
Purely Vegetable, and is the only and remedy guaranteed to contain no dangerous minerals.
Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

100

Southern California by Towns and Counties.

PASADENA.

EXASPERATED OLD MAN SETS HIS BED AFIRE TO KILL PESTS.

He thought it the best way to get rid of his insect enemies—State collateral inheritance tax law upset—Henry Smith breaks the praying record.

PASADENA, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] Uncle Charles Harper has once more tumbled into notoriety. In the first place, he fell off the top of a city sprinkling cart, where a septuagenarian of his feebleness never should have been perched. He was severely injured and was sent to the County Hospital. Before his recovery he ran away and turned up here as an object of pity, cared for by a friend who had hard work to fill his own mouth. Complaints have recently been made to the city of the pestiferous vagaries of the old man, who evidently should have a guardian. His latest trick was to set fire to his bed. It appears that the attorney occupied by "Uncle Charles" on South Fair Oaks avenue are infested with insect pests, which have woefully distressed the wanderer's dreams. Exasperated beyond endurance, he conceived a brilliant plan for ridding himself of these companions. He soaked his bed clothes with gasoline and set fire to them. Other inmates of the house smelled the fire and rushed to the old man's room just in time to prevent a destructive blaze. He was contemplating the rout of his enemies with keen satisfaction.

TAX LAW UPSET.
Attorney J. H. Merriam of this city has succeeded in his attempt to knock out the collateral inheritance tax law of California, in one of the most complicated and bewildering of cases. It was a clinch when the attorney demonstrated to the court that under the law the value of a fund of $5000 cash had been literally appraised for purposes of taxation at the State, in this instance, at $7103.02. That settled it.

The case grew out of the will of Mary E. Howard of Los Angeles, who bequeathed an annuity of the interest on $5000 a year at 7 per cent. to Fannie E. Bixby, an Indian woman of rising 60 years of age. The will provided that after the death of the annuitant the fund should go to her children, or to the national institution. The question came up, what was the present prospective value of Miss Bixby's annuity for purposes of taxation? What was the future contingent value of the residuary fund. This knotty question was submitted to the State Insurance Commissioner, under the law, who got out his tables and figured that the State should tax Miss Bixby's annuity at $2990, and that the value of the residuary fund, after Miss Bixby's death, would bring the total assessable valuation of the $5000 up to $7103.02. The taxation on such bequests is 5 per cent.

Attorney Merriam went into the Superior Court to try to knock the law in, in behalf of Miss Bixby. He argued that the report of the State Insurance Commissioner was not conclusive, and that the court should decide. He argued that if the law contemplated it as conclusive, then the law was unconstitutional; that the power was not in the legislature to place into account in reckoning the value of her annuity, wherein the Insurance Commissioner had failed, and that the value of her share at $2990 was too much anyhow, while the attempt to tax $5000 as $7000 was absurd.

Attorney Merriam received notice today that Judge York had sustained his contentions and had cut down the valuation of Miss Bixby's annuity to $2990 to $1000. This leaves about $100 in the amount of her tax.

PRAYED TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

Henry Smith, a young man about 22 years old, a frequenter of the Peniel Mission here, has performed the feat of praying twenty-four hours at a stretch, without eating or drinking. He got down on his knees in the mission at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and started in. At 2 o'clock this afternoon he was still at it, with no sign of faltering. Some of his friends saw he was growing pale, and after an interval, lifting him from the floor and dragging him to a restaurant for a dinner. Some of these enthusiasts are trying to pray the slot machines out of town.

STREET WORK.

It cost the city $1066 for sprinkling the streets in the month of August. There is much dissatisfaction on East Colorado street with the row of incandescent lights along one side of the street, which block the place of the central area. The scheme seems to work well on the narrower side streets, but not on so wide a street as Colorado. This is the subject of a petition to the City Council to restore the arc lights.

Three two-horse teams are now at work in the widening of Walnut street, from the intersection of Maringo, has been started.

PASADENA BREVIETTES.
Engineer W. R. Stevenson will leave Pasadena next week to begin work on that big irrigation enterprise, the Yuma, in which many Pasadena families are interested. All the legal points have been decided in favor of the cooperative colony, and families have already located on every quarter section.

The African Methodist Church gave a reception to the returning pastor, Rev. E. H. Herring and wife, last evening. Mr. Herring having declined to leave this charge to accept a call to San Francisco, addressed the church made by J. C. C. Jaxon, J. L. Edmonds, with a solo by William Prince.

Jim McLaughlin, the colored man who tried to run away yesterday from Pomona, was arraigned before Justice Klamroth this morning on the charge of failure to support his wife and children. He is an old offender in this line. His trial was appointed for Friday and he was sent to jail.

Mrs. Nancy E. Mairs of this city has sued her husband, Francis H. Mairs, for a divorce, alleging that he is habitually intemperate and struck her with a horsewhip. She petitions for custody of the children, aged 10 and 15 years.

That pestiferously malodorous tramp, who polluted Justice Klamroth's office, has finally been sent to the County Hospital instead of the morgue. It was found that he was suffering from a terrible disease.

The Pasadena Board of Trade is considering a proposition to take a box at the Modjeska benefit for the Battery D fund. The American Club may assist in the reception to the soldiers.

R. S. Cochran, at work on a build-

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

ORDINANCE PROHIBITING SLOT MACHINES ADOPTED.

Only Devices Which Pay Winnings in Money Included—No Reservoir in the City Park—Modjeska's Presentation of "Marie Antoinette."

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] By a unanimous vote the Board of Delegates has adopted the ordinance passed last week by the Board of Aldermen, forbidding the operation within the corporate limits of the city of slot machines which pay winnings in money. This action was taken in spite of all the pressure which those interested in the machines could bring to bear. The only concession granted the machine men was a provision suspending the operation of the ordinance for thirty days from its approval. There is no doubt that the Mayor will sign the ordinance as to him is due much credit for his creditworthiness. An effort was made by the minority of the Committee on Health and Morals to make the ordinance more stringent, but their provision was rejected.

The joint water committee submitted a report recommending the granting of a reservoir site in the City Park to the Southern California Mountain Water Company. A communication from the company was received, and the committee is now considering the request for a site on the ground that the City Attorney had declared that if the site were granted, the company would be required to proceed with the work. A request was made instead for permission to construct a reservoir on the ground which the company might lease.

The initial performance of Clinton Stuart's new play, "Marie Antoinette," was presented last night at the Fisher Opera house by Mme. Modjeska's company before a large audience. The title role was assumed by Modjeska, John E. Keller appearing as Louis XVI. The rendition of the story of this unfortunate couple was a more successful one than the previous evening. There was nothing in its presentation of the play, the only unusual feature of the performance being the long waits between acts. The costumes and settings were very rich. A charming bit of acting was done by Bessie Buskirk as Dauphine.

OPPOSE THE LEVY.
Attorney George P. Puterbaugh appeared before the County Board of Supervisors this morning to present a protest against the proposed levy of a special school tax of $30,000, which was authorized at a recent election. He argued the matter at length and demanded that the Supervisors call a special meeting with the Board of Education to discuss the matter. He argued that the levy was not in the public interest and that the Board of Education should be heard. The clerk was instructed to notify the City Board of Education that the hearing would be held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

SAN DIEGO BREVIETTES.
Ramon Tapia, charged with the murder of Jacob Veitinger, was before Judge Anderson yesterday in court. Many of the witnesses were taken through an interpreter. The examination was not held in public. The steamship Maule, Capt. Alejandro Medina, from the port of El Triunfo, San Salvador, entered the harbor yesterday. The ship was carrying a cargo of 90,000 feet of cedar logs. This is an experimental voyage, and the ship was expected to put in here for water.

Police Officer Warner, who is charged with having been in civil cases before they were brought to trial, has been suspended until Saturday, when the Police Commission will investigate the matter.

Mr. Aiken, who had intended to erect a cattle dip for tick-infested cattle, is in receipt of a letter from the Agricultural Department of Washington, saying that the dip does not satisfactorily exterminate the ticks, and that cattle thus treated would not be allowed to pass.

The Country Club has made arrangements for a general field day on their golf links next Sunday. A club supper followed by dancing will complete the day's program.

CORONADO BEACH.
HOTEL DEL CORONADO, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] George M. Churchill and Col. John M. C. Marble and son of Los Angeles spent an hour or so yesterday afternoon at Coronado beach with Capt. Dunne, returning with a string of forty-six pompano, croaker and yellowfin, part of which they had served to a party of friends at dinner last evening.

The Y.P.S.C. held a social at the home of Mrs. D. S. Lacey last evening. An excellent party was followed by games and refreshments.

I. H. Pearman of Pasadena was a guest at the hotel last evening. A. P. Stewart of Fort Lauderdale registered at the hotel last night.

ORANGE COUNTY.
New Plans for a Courthouse Wanted. Fullerton Schools.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] The clerk of the Board of Supervisors was instructed to ask architects to submit plans and specifications for a new Courthouse, under the same conditions as prevailed in the previous competition. The plans are to be considered by the Supervisors September 13, the board reserving the right to reject any or all of the plans.

FIVE TO ONE.
The returns from all the precincts in the county on the special bond election for a new Courthouse, were received today, showing that only 1697 votes were cast. Of this number 1414 were for bond, and 283 against. The bond advocates lacked just one ball of polling five times as many votes as the anti-bond voters. The Supervisors will endeavor to have a Courthouse completed and occupied within a year from the date of the election.

FALSE COMPLAINT.
At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors today, Andrew Gillison complained that the refuse from the Alamosa sugar factory was a nuisance, and requested that the board take steps to abate it. The matter was referred to the county Health Officer.

SANTA ANA BREVIETTES.
The Santa Ana Valley Irrigation

Company has begun the construction of a waterway from West to Ross street, on the Halesworth tract in this city. Diabolo, a promising pacer from this city, who has been driven by Jack Felton during the present season, will be brought back to the track on Monday, having gone lame in a recent race at that city. The injury is not thought to be permanent.

ANAHEIM.
ANAHEIM, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] The Southern Pacific has opened its new depot in the city and is now running all passenger trains through town. The West Anaheim depot is still open for business, under the name of Anaheim Junction. Freight runs by the old route around the town, and two sets of officials are employed at the depots. The increased expenses and investment in new property is in no manner justified by the road's local business, present or prospective, and what it will mean continues the puzzle of the day.

ANAHEIM BREVIETTES.
A force of painters have commenced work at the Hotel del Campo, and are under contract to go over it. Conrad Steckley, the Baum brothers and the company, who were engaged in a year's absence in Alaska.

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND.
A Woman's Hasty Departure and What Led Up to It.

AVAILON (Santa Catalina Island), Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] A young woman who had been spending the summer on the island left very suddenly a few days ago, telling her friends she was going to the mainland, but forgetting that at the time of her departure she could not have received such a summons. This caused some comment, but the real reason for the departure was kept a secret until today, when it was learned that she had been acting as a treasurer for a lodge-house at which the woman had been staying, reported to the official as a week ago that three of her female guests had been robbed of their purses. Officer Inman went to investigate and found that one of the women had been acting as a treasurer for the lodge-house, and that the money was supposed to have been stolen. Something in the woman's manner before the robbery, and the fact that she had been acting as a treasurer, had been no loss of money, and after questioning her he opened charged her with the theft. At first she indignantly denied the charge, but when the County Jail was mentioned she fainted. On being revived she said she could find all the money she had lost, and she left the island on the first steamer.

MACKEREL DAY.
Today it is the mackerel in the bay that are making all the excitement. More than half a hundred boats were engaged all morning in the mackerel fishery, and the fish were being sold at the vicinity of Sugar Loaf, and the anglers were a sight to behold. They were wet and bedraggled and sprinkled with scales, but they were not complaining. All had great luck, and the boats were filled with the finny beauties, the numbers ranging from twenty up to more than a hundred.

SANTA CATALINA BREVIETTES.
Yesterday morning a fishing party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Spoor Mackey of Pomona and Miss Henrietta Howe of Los Angeles went out with Mr. Gardner, Off Seal Rock. Mrs. Mackey and her son, who are both tall and one rock bass and Mr. Mackey landed five yellowtail. The fish ranged from fifteen to twenty pounds in weight, and all were caught with rod and reel.

Frank V. Rider brought in a black sea bass yesterday weighing 24 pounds. The fish was caught in the harbor, and was brought in by the rider. The fish was a fine specimen, and was brought in by the rider.

A coal strike has just been made at the Whitehead water tunnel back of Montecito. The strike is of a very hard variety, but there is little prospect of a workable mine. Coal has frequently been found here in small pockets, but the possibilities have never been discovered.

The St. Valentine Mining Company has been incorporated to do a general mining business in the Santa Barbara area. The capital stock is $100,000, a greater part of which is subscribed by prominent business men of the city.

Frank Williams and Miss Mary Diehl were married this evening. Miss Diehl has been a school teacher, and is the daughter of Frank Diehl, Mr. Williams' mother has been keeper of the Santa Barbara lighthouse for thirty-four years.

Sney Stillwell and Robert L. Bettner, both of this city, have been invited to act as judges in the harness and saddle classes at the coming Burlingame horse show.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.
City Streets Dark Because of a Disputed Contract.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] San Bernardino is now in darkness, so far as lighting the streets and city buildings by electricity goes. The City Board of Trustees, about a month ago, abrogated the contract with the electric company for lighting the streets, on the ground that the service was unsatisfactory, but Manager Lloyd of the electric company kept the lights burning during August. Last night he presented a bill for the service, and the city was left in the dark. The city board has refused to pay the bill, and the city is now in the dark.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVIETTES.
A petition was presented to the Board of Supervisors today, asking that the county purchase the Bear Valley toll road between Fredlake and Bear Valley, for a free mountain road. Supervisor West was appointed a committee of one to inquire into the proposition.

Judge Campbell today committed Mrs. Lucie L. Morgan to the Highland Asylum on the testimony of J. B. Kettner, J. N. Baylis, H. Conner, Dr. S. O. Huff, William Vincent, Dr. W. H. Stiles and Dr. C. A. Mackechnie.

FALLEN STARS.
List of Those Dropped by Constable George Brown.

Constable George Brown recently sent out notices to a number of his deputies in various parts of this city and county, notifying them that their stars had been revoked. The records in the office of the County Supervisors show that, in revising his list, Constable Brown has canceled the appointment of thirty-five deputies. The

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY.

MAYOR ARRESTED UPON A CHARGE OF DISTURBANCE.

Trouble Between Him and Councilman Wells to Be Settled in Court, House-movers Caught Under a Falling Building—New Black Scale Parasite.

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] Charles Wells, Councilman of the Fifth Ward, swore a complaint this morning, upon which a warrant was issued for the arrest of Edmond M. Burke, Mayor of Santa Barbara, on a charge of disturbing the peace. Mr. Wells some days ago published a signed criticism of the Mayor, and last evening, Burke demanded an explanation, and when none was made, lost his temper and is said to have used language calculated to disturb the peace.

The Mayor hearing of the warrant went to Justice Wheaton's court this afternoon. He was there placed under arrest, but not guilty was entered, and Mr. Burke asked for a jury trial. The case will be tried next Wednesday.

SAVED BY HIS SOLES.
James Bernard and Frank Bermudez narrowly escaped death today while moving a house across upper State street. They were under the building attending to some of the details of the work, when a horse was started. The blocking slipped, letting one corner down upon the men. Bermudez, in such a way as to be partly protected by heavy timbers of the building, escaped serious injury. Bernard, however, was seriously injured about the hips. His legs were crushed by the weight of the heavy sole of a pair of working shoes he wore. These soles were fully three-quarters of an inch in thickness. They were bent under the weight of the men, but they kept the building just high enough at the corner to prevent both being crushed. Jackswere were put under the building, as far as possible, and the men were dragged out.

NEW SCALE EXTERMINATOR.
Ellwood Cooper, president of the State Board of Horticulture, has received a letter from George Compton of Los Angeles, who is in Honolulu searching for parasitic and predaceous insects. He announces that he has discovered the parasite which works upon the black scale. This insect differs very materially from the "bug" known in California and on the Coast. The new parasite works on the young scale before the eggs are hatched. Only a few specimens could be secured, but these will be sent here and will be propagated for the use of the orchardists of the State.

SANTA BARBARA BREVIETTES.
After spending several thousand dollars and boring over 3000 feet in the Caswell Mountain, near this city, the Pacific Coast Whaling and Oil Company have given up hopes of striking oil and have taken up their casing and removed fifteen or twenty carloads of machinery and tools to other Southern California oil fields.

Suit was filed here today by George G. Moore of Monterey, the Kern County Land Company. Mr. Gould alleges that the company accepted a lease from a third party upon certain portions of his land, and that the company would be liable for rents from 1892 to 1938 at a yearly rental of $80. The land was used as pasture land, and the company was not to be held liable for the same.

Marine Insurance Inspector Turner, of the Firemen's Fund Company, and a party of divers and wreckers from San Francisco went to Santa Rosa Island today to examine the Magic, the vessel belonging to the Catalina Conserving Company, recently wrecked on a reef off the island. An attempt will be made to raise her.

A coal strike has just been made at the Whitehead water tunnel back of Montecito. The strike is of a very hard variety, but there is little prospect of a workable mine. Coal has frequently been found here in small pockets, but the possibilities have never been discovered.

The St. Valentine Mining Company has been incorporated to do a general mining business in the Santa Barbara area. The capital stock is $100,000, a greater part of which is subscribed by prominent business men of the city.

Frank Williams and Miss Mary Diehl were married this evening. Miss Diehl has been a school teacher, and is the daughter of Frank Diehl, Mr. Williams' mother has been keeper of the Santa Barbara lighthouse for thirty-four years.

Sney Stillwell and Robert L. Bettner, both of this city, have been invited to act as judges in the harness and saddle classes at the coming Burlingame horse show.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.
City Streets Dark Because of a Disputed Contract.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 6.—[Regular Correspondence.] San Bernardino is now in darkness, so far as lighting the streets and city buildings by electricity goes. The City Board of Trustees, about a month ago, abrogated the contract with the electric company for lighting the streets, on the ground that the service was unsatisfactory, but Manager Lloyd of the electric company kept the lights burning during August. Last night he presented a bill for the service, and the city was left in the dark. The city board has refused to pay the bill, and the city is now in the dark.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVIETTES.
A petition was presented to the Board of Supervisors today, asking that the county purchase the Bear Valley toll road between Fredlake and Bear Valley, for a free mountain road. Supervisor West was appointed a committee of one to inquire into the proposition.

Judge Campbell today committed Mrs. Lucie L. Morgan to the Highland Asylum on the testimony of J. B. Kettner, J. N. Baylis, H. Conner, Dr. S. O. Huff, William Vincent, Dr. W. H. Stiles and Dr. C. A. Mackechnie.

FALLEN STARS.
List of Those Dropped by Constable George Brown.

Constable George Brown recently sent out notices to a number of his deputies in various parts of this city and county, notifying them that their stars had been revoked. The records in the office of the County Supervisors show that, in revising his list, Constable Brown has canceled the appointment of thirty-five deputies. The notices sent out by Brown read as follows:

"Dear sir: Upon the advice of my bondsmen I am obliged to make a deduction of my deputies. Upon receipt of this notice please discontinue to exercise your authority, as I have cancelled your appointment as deputy constable. Thanking you for past services, I remain yours, etc.
[Signed] "GEORGE BROWN, Constable."

The list of deputies thus revoked by Constable Brown is as follows: O. Arguello, D. L. Adams, A. V. Barber, L. S. Boardley, H. Rickel, D. Bruns, E. C. Curli, L. J. Coburn, Thomas E. Collins, A. J. Dickens, A. J. Grant, W. V. Hawthorne, R. B. Kidd, Charles Kon, Frank Lemo, D. Lopez, J. C. Platt, B. B. Swilling, A. Axionator, A. G. Bridges, D. J. Cooper, H. E. Edmonds, L. C. Flores, Y. A. Garcia, J. W. Hendee, Evan Jones, C. C. Klesner, E. H. Koch, M. A. Long, J. H. Morley, F. McGraw, F. H. Meyers, A. W. Pomeroy, A. Valenzuela, A. W. White.

Porto Rico Relief Fund.
The Board of Supervisors, having referred the recent proclamation of the Governor asking the people of the State to contribute money, supplies and clothing for the relief of the people of Porto Rico to the Associated Charities, that organization is endeavoring to create a fund for the purpose indicated in the first call for assistance by the Secretary of War to the Governors of all the States.

It has been decided not to attempt to secure food and clothing here, owing to the long distance that such supplies would have to be shipped. The Associated Charities will therefore endeavor to raise money only and will forward such contributions as may be made to the National Bank of North America, New York City, which has been designated as the depository for the relief fund. The office of the Associated Charities is room No. 11, in the Courthouse.

Going Out Camping.
picnicking, fishing or hunting? If so, you will appreciate the advantage of taking along a supply of the

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.
It is most delicious in Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and numerous summer drinks. Send for Book on "Babies."

MADE ME A MAN.
AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE all cases of Venereal Disease, whether acute or chronic, and are the only reliable remedy for the cure of all venereal diseases. They are the only tablets that will cure all venereal diseases, and are the only tablets that will cure all venereal diseases.

For sale in Los Angeles, Cal., by C. F. Heinemann, 222 N. Main st., and Godfrey & Moore, 108 S. Spring st., druggists.

Ladies' Skirts Cleaned and Finished, 50c and 75c. Men's Suits Cleaned and Pressed, $1.25.
By our Improved Dry Process.

Berlin Dye Works.
36 S. Broadway, Tel. 676.

Challenge Iceberg REFRIGERATORS
And Standard Wickless Blue Steel Units. Low prices. Old 10.00's. Low prices.

Parmelee-Dohrmann Co.,
232-234 S. Spring.

CITY DYE AND CLEANING WORKS.
36 S. Broadway, LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Oldest Paper in America.
Saturday Evening Post.

Lines of Travel.
Pacific Coast Steamship Co.

The company's elegant steamers Santa Rosa and Santa Clara leave Redondo at 11 A.M. and Port Los Angeles at 2:30 P.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Leave Port Los Angeles at 5:45 A.M. and Redondo at 10:45 A.M. for San Diego, Sept. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Oct. 3, 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Nov. 1, 5, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect via Redondo leave Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. or from Redondo by depot at 9:45 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

Connect with steamers via Santa Fe depot at 9:35 A.M. for San Francisco via Santa Barbara and Port San Pedro. Sept. 7, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, Oct. 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, Dec. 30, and every fourth day thereafter.

"Example is Better Than Precept."

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. Thousands of testimonials are examples of what Hood's has done for others, and what it will do for you.

Scrofula—"Running scrofula" sores made me shunned by neighbors. Medical treatment failed. A relative urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Did so and in few months the sores completely healed." Mrs. J. J. Harris, Sina, R.

Inflammatory Rheumatism—"Two attacks of the grip left me with inflammatory rheumatism. Am 59 years old, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me and I can climb stairs and walk anywhere." J. L. L. LAND, 373 Fargo Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
NEVER DISAPPOINTS
Hood's Pills cure liver ill, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Lazy Liver
"I have been troubled a great deal with a torpid liver, which produces constipation. I found CASCARETS to be all you claim for them, and secured such relief the first trial that I purchased another supply and was completely cured. I would not be too strict in recommending Cascarets whenever the opportunity is presented." J. A. SARTZ, 2200 Stuebans Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Going Out Camping.
picnicking, fishing or hunting? If so, you will appreciate the advantage of taking along a supply of the

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.
It is most delicious in Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and numerous summer drinks. Send for Book on "Babies."

MADE ME A MAN.
AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE all cases of Venereal Disease, whether acute or chronic, and are the only reliable remedy for the cure of all venereal diseases. They are the only tablets that will cure all venereal diseases, and are the only tablets that will cure all venereal diseases.

For sale in Los Angeles, Cal., by C. F. Heinemann, 222 N. Main st., and Godfrey & Moore, 108 S. Spring st., druggists.

Ladies' Skirts Cleaned and Finished, 50c and 75c. Men's Suits Cleaned and Pressed, $1.25.
By our Improved Dry Process.

Berlin Dye Works.
36 S. Broadway, Tel. 676.

Challenge Iceberg REFRIGERATORS
And Standard Wickless Blue Steel Units. Low prices. Old 10.00's. Low prices.

Parmelee-Dohrmann Co.,
232-234 S. Spring.

City Briefs.

The Good Samaritan. Remember the needy. Save your cut-off clothing, beds, bedding or stoves for poor families of the city. A request is also made for shoes and clothing for poor children. Drop and fall in line at the "Good Samaritan" (formerly Capt. Frazier's place), No. 135 East Seventh street, and anything you have to donate will be called for.

The Times business office is open all night, and liners, death notices, etc., will be received up to 1:30 a.m. Small display announcements may be sent in up to that hour, but large display ads. cannot be attractively set or brought in later than 5:30 p.m. Telephone Main 26.

Closing out fifty Navajo Indian blankets and twenty-five Mexican sarapes at big reductions before going to Mexico to buy new stock. Campbell's Curio Store, No. 325 S. Spring st.

The Times job office has removed temporarily, while the new building is being erected, to basement of The Times Building.

All kinds plain machine composition at 30 cents per thousand and standard measure, at The Times job office.

Purs repaired, D. Bonoff, 247 S. Bldg. Art School daily, 614 Hill street.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for Mrs. Anna Baruch, E. J. Griffing, Mary E. Verder and Clifford G. Hatch.

Tony Marcovitch, whose mother assured Justice Morgan that he was a good boy, was given a five days' "float" yesterday for jumping on and off cars in Los Angeles.

Ernest Dupue, a boy who was arrested by Officer Stewart for violating the curfew ordinance, was released by Justice Morgan yesterday, after a brief lecture on the awful fate in store for small boys who stay out late at night.

The Southern California Social and Athletic Club will give their initial picnic at Ventura beach next Sunday. Excursion trains will leave on the Terminal Railway. There will be music and dancing at the pavilion in the afternoon.

Gus Heuling and Rafael Escobedo were fined $2 each yesterday for getting drunk. Ed O'Brien, F. O. Wiley and Nick Zimmer contributed $5 each to the city treasury by forfeiting their bail instead of appearing to answer the charge of drunkenness.

At 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm was turned in from box No. 76, corner of San and Main streets, for a small blaze in the playhouse in the rear of the Newsboys' Home. The origin of the fire is said to be due to the children playing with children while at play. Loss about $10.

John Meade, who owns a frontage of seventy feet on South Main street, the second lot south of that which the government is endeavoring to purchase, has a site for an addition to the Federal building, states that he values thirty-five feet of his property at $500 per front foot and the rest at $400 per foot. He says he was misrepresented in the Evening Record, which stated that he valued his property at $1100 per front foot.

EXCURSION TO CATALINA.

Proceeds to Benefit Newsboys' Home.

Ten Days' Time.

A splendid chance to have a fine outing and at the same time aid a worthy charity will be given people who wish to visit Santa Catalina Island on next Saturday. Admission day. There will be an excursion to the island and the major part of the proceeds will be donated to the Newsboys' Home, by the Terminal Railroad Company and the Banning Company. For this special occasion the fare will be reduced to $2 for the round trip. Special trains will leave Terminal depot at 8 a.m., connecting with the boat at San Pedro. Those who care to return the same day will leave the island at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and spending four hours at Catalina. The tickets will be good for ten days.

Aside from all considerations of pleasure the proceeds of the excursion, and the money is badly needed by the Newsboys' Home. The funds for its maintenance have been running low, and they must be replenished for this work of charity is to be efficiently done. Those at the head of the institution are willing to do all that is possible to care for the welfare and uplift that cry the papers on the streets.

In an institution like the Newsboys' Home a little money goes a long way, and the proceeds of the coming excursion to Santa Catalina Island will gladden the heart and cheer the soul of many a poor wretch who but for the home must suffer in the cold and dark.

Ten Boys Escape at Ione.

STOCKTON, Sept. 6.—The police were notified today that ten boys had escaped from the Preston Reform School at Ione.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday from the office of the County Clerk:

Claude B. Young, aged 20, a native of Minnesota, and Nina Pearl Stevens, aged 18, a native of Minnesota; both residents of Los Angeles.

Melvin Young, aged 34, a native of Massachusetts, and Gertrude M. Butler, aged 20, a native of California; both residents of Los Angeles.

John de Turk, aged 29, a native of Pennsylvania, and Loma H. Lower, aged 22, a native of Illinois; both residents of Pasadena.

John McCoy, aged 46, a native of Illinois, and Estrella Loomis, aged 19, a native of Illinois; both residents of Los Angeles.

WATERS—On Wednesday, September 6, to the wife of William S. Waters, a son.

DEATH RECORD.

PHILBROOK—Albertina, beloved wife of T. H. Philbrook, at 5:30 o'clock Monday night, at her late home, No. 212 West street.

Funeral services at Orr & Hines' mortuary, No. 447 South Broadway, Thursday morning, 10 o'clock. Friends interested, Western Wood-Lawn Cemetery, New York city.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of Capt. John S. Godfrey will be held Friday, September 8, at 10 o'clock, at Lippincott's funeral parlors, Pasadena, Rev. E. L. Conger officiating. Interment Mountain View Cemetery. Friends invited.

BUTCH & BERING, FUNERAL PARLORS, No. 5622 South Broadway. Lady attendant. Best service. Eastern prices. Tel. main 66.

ANYVO Theatrical Cold Cream prevents early wrinkles; it is not a freckle coating; it removes them.

WATCHES cleaned, 50c; mainprings, 50c; crystals, 10c. Patton, No. 214 S. Broadway.

"BISHOP'S BEER." Absolutely non-intoxicating. It looks like beer, tastes like beer, foams like beer. The great health beverage, introduced on this coast by the temperance workers of Chicago, and now enjoyed by thousands in California. HOME SALON CO., Warehouse, Second Street and Central Avenue.

Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS.

PLAN TO FURNISH EMPLOYMENT UPON THEIR RETURN.

War Board Interested in Having Them Welcomed in a Tangible and Lasting Way—Capt. Diss Sends a Roster—Preparations.

Battery D, which left Los Angeles May 8, last year, 157 strong, for service in the Philippines, will return to the city the last of this month. Many of the soldiers who enlisted in their country's cause were compelled to give up lucrative positions in order to take up the duties of a soldier, and some of them have not thus far received assurance that they will find employment awaiting them on their return.

The Los Angeles War Board, having in charge the reception to be given to the returning troops, is anxious that the soldiers be made to realize the sincerity of the citizens' welcome in ways more tangible and lasting than the mere speech-making and banqueting which will be incidents of the day they return. It has been more than once suggested that the merchants and others of the city who have employment to offer should tender the positions to the returning volunteers.

At the solicitation of the War Board, Capt. J. W. F. Diss, now in command of the battery, has sent to Secretary of the American Club for the purpose of occupying the occupation of each man and naming those who have no promise of work in addition. Capt. Diss has indicated in marginal notes the character which each man has borne in the service so that employers can form some idea of the kind of work to be expected. If those who have work to give will call on the secretary and state the qualifications required, arrangements can be made for the men before they reach the city. It is thought by the War Board that it would be a very nice tribute to the soldiers, and a splendid manifestation of loyalty on the part of the citizens if every man in the battery could be assured of employment the day he arrived.

The roster sent by Capt. Diss includes the names of 135 non-commissioned officers and privates. The decrease in number is not due alone to loss in battle, but to the fact that many of the men have joined other organizations, while some remained in Manila for business reasons. Of those returning fifty-nine have no promise of employment. Among the number are laborers, clerks, miners, carpenters, engineers, machinists, railroad men, electricians, blacksmiths, butchers, cooks, plumbers, painters, teamsters, farm hands and men from nearly every walk of life. The battery is expected to reach here about the 24th inst., and citizens who expect to assist this laudable project must do so at once.

The Mayor has been asked to preside over the literary exercises on the day the battery returns and to make a short speech, introducing Will A. A. Harris, who will deliver the address of welcome. The Pasadena Board of Trade has been requested to guarantee the American Club for the parade as a fair contribution from that city to the reception. Letters were sent yesterday to the War Board to the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railway companies requesting that a special rate be established to all Southern California points. Indians seem to point to a large influx of people from the surrounding country who will come to attend the celebration, and it is hoped to induce the railroads to grant special excursion tickets.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Hon. John Barrett to Be Invited to Deliver an Address.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, Chairman W. C. Patterson of the Paris Exposition Committee, reported that favorable arrangements had been made toward securing exhibits of products from this section of the country. All of the members are using their best efforts to secure such exhibits, and they are gratified at the interest which has been taken in the matter thus far.

Chairman G. H. Stewart of the Committee on Immigration, recommended that the chamber cooperate in promoting the success of the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo in 1901.

A communication was received which had reference to inviting Hon. John Barrett, ex-Minister of the United States to Spain, to address the members of the chamber on the subject of widening our markets bordering on the Pacific Ocean. The president was invited to invite Mr. Barrett to deliver the lecture.

The following new members were elected: J. J. Hummel, P. J. Hummel, C. H. Richards, W. J. Hicks, H. F. Despard, H. Wakter, S. Wakter, G. K. Woodward, T. Cole.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

BISHOPS

Have you heard of it? Have you tasted it? You will miss something if you don't try

SATINET.

SODA CRACKERS

FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS.

PLAN TO FURNISH EMPLOYMENT UPON THEIR RETURN.

War Board Interested in Having Them Welcomed in a Tangible and Lasting Way—Capt. Diss Sends a Roster—Preparations.

Battery D, which left Los Angeles May 8, last year, 157 strong, for service in the Philippines, will return to the city the last of this month. Many of the soldiers who enlisted in their country's cause were compelled to give up lucrative positions in order to take up the duties of a soldier, and some of them have not thus far received assurance that they will find employment awaiting them on their return.

The Los Angeles War Board, having in charge the reception to be given to the returning troops, is anxious that the soldiers be made to realize the sincerity of the citizens' welcome in ways more tangible and lasting than the mere speech-making and banqueting which will be incidents of the day they return. It has been more than once suggested that the merchants and others of the city who have employment to offer should tender the positions to the returning volunteers.

At the solicitation of the War Board, Capt. J. W. F. Diss, now in command of the battery, has sent to Secretary of the American Club for the purpose of occupying the occupation of each man and naming those who have no promise of work in addition. Capt. Diss has indicated in marginal notes the character which each man has borne in the service so that employers can form some idea of the kind of work to be expected. If those who have work to give will call on the secretary and state the qualifications required, arrangements can be made for the men before they reach the city. It is thought by the War Board that it would be a very nice tribute to the soldiers, and a splendid manifestation of loyalty on the part of the citizens if every man in the battery could be assured of employment the day he arrived.

The roster sent by Capt. Diss includes the names of 135 non-commissioned officers and privates. The decrease in number is not due alone to loss in battle, but to the fact that many of the men have joined other organizations, while some remained in Manila for business reasons. Of those returning fifty-nine have no promise of employment. Among the number are laborers, clerks, miners, carpenters, engineers, machinists, railroad men, electricians, blacksmiths, butchers, cooks, plumbers, painters, teamsters, farm hands and men from nearly every walk of life. The battery is expected to reach here about the 24th inst., and citizens who expect to assist this laudable project must do so at once.

The Mayor has been asked to preside over the literary exercises on the day the battery returns and to make a short speech, introducing Will A. A. Harris, who will deliver the address of welcome. The Pasadena Board of Trade has been requested to guarantee the American Club for the parade as a fair contribution from that city to the reception. Letters were sent yesterday to the War Board to the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railway companies requesting that a special rate be established to all Southern California points. Indians seem to point to a large influx of people from the surrounding country who will come to attend the celebration, and it is hoped to induce the railroads to grant special excursion tickets.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Hon. John Barrett to Be Invited to Deliver an Address.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, Chairman W. C. Patterson of the Paris Exposition Committee, reported that favorable arrangements had been made toward securing exhibits of products from this section of the country. All of the members are using their best efforts to secure such exhibits, and they are gratified at the interest which has been taken in the matter thus far.

Chairman G. H. Stewart of the Committee on Immigration, recommended that the chamber cooperate in promoting the success of the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo in 1901.

A communication was received which had reference to inviting Hon. John Barrett, ex-Minister of the United States to Spain, to address the members of the chamber on the subject of widening our markets bordering on the Pacific Ocean. The president was invited to invite Mr. Barrett to deliver the lecture.

The following new members were elected: J. J. Hummel, P. J. Hummel, C. H. Richards, W. J. Hicks, H. F. Despard, H. Wakter, S. Wakter, G. K. Woodward, T. Cole.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Funeral of Capt. Hazel.

The funeral of Capt. Edward J. Hazel, who died at the Soldiers' Home Tuesday morning, took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 1633 Vermont avenue. Capt. Hazel passed through several trances prior to his death, and was once or twice actually pronounced dead, when he suddenly revived and gave promise of recovery. He was taken to the Soldiers' Home about two weeks ago in the hope that the excellent facilities for treatment in the Home hospital would aid in restoring him to health, but he again lapsed into a state of coma last Monday evening and died the following morning. Capt. Hazel was a veteran of the civil war, and for some years prior to his final illness was employed as a salesman in the furniture store of Barker Bros.

Catholic Aid Society.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the grand council of the Catholic Aid Society today Mrs. Margaret Deane, the grand president, delivered her annual address. She suggested combining the office and headquarters with the Young Woman's Home, which the society proposes establishing. The work done during the year was considerable. It was reported that the indebtedness on the Delmar property now amounts to over $3000.

Shirt Waists and Dress Skirts at 1/3 the Former Prices

Every wash waist and skirt in the house is included in these eight lots. Every one is to be sold at one-third or less. Cost, selling price and desirability are entirely lost sight of. Our only object is to sell. Plenty of warm, summery weather is still on nature's programme, but we wish to hasten the selling. Remember, every wash skirt and waist must go. The reductions are simply astonishing. Deeper cuts than we have ever before indulged in. Come—come quickly. Come today.

Cotton percale shirt waists in a good assortment of fancy stripes; regular 50c and 70c waists, reduced to..... 25c
Fancy percale, white lawn and pique shirt waists, some tastefully trimmed; worth from $1.00 to $1.50; to be closed out at..... 50c

A large line of fancy pique and gingham shirt waists that sold at from $2.00 to $2.50; your choice of the lot now for..... 98c
All of our fine imported Madras, gingham, French pique and percale waists, regular prices were $2.50 to $3.50; to be closed out at..... $1.50

White pique dress skirts, cut full shape and perfect fitting, made with deep hems and fully worth 50c; your choice now for..... 39c
Wide welt cord, white pique skirts in very elegant styles; $1.50 to $2.00 were the regular prices; to be closed out now at..... 79c

All linen crash skirts in the plain sheath pattern, correct in style and well finished; $5 skirts, selling at..... $1.00
Fine linen pique and chambray skirts, trimmed with fancy bands; also some tulle effects, skirts that formerly sold at $5; to be closed out at..... $1.50

Last Call Tan Shoes

Women's and children's tan shoes are fast melting away under the price shriveling rays of these reductions. Tans are proper for fall and winter, but we have new lines coming to take the places of these. Out they go as follows:

Choice of any of our women's $2.50 tan, lace or button shoes; all made on the new last with coin toes..... $2.00

Women's tan Oxford made with Louis XV heels, cloth tops and new round toes; all sizes; regular $3.00 shoes, reduced to..... $2.00

Girls' tan strap slippers made with tulle soles and very stylish; sizes 11 to 12; best $1.50 slippers on the market; reduced to..... $1.05

Broken lines of girls' $2.50 shoes, made in button styles, with spring heels; reduced now to..... $1.35

Reduced We are selling china of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD FLOOR.

China of all kinds at most unheard of little prices. We mention one of our "open stock" patterns. Flow blue, semi-porcelain china with gold-stippled edges, a very choice pattern, reduced as follows:

6-inch dessert plates cut to 50c set 6-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 7-inch plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch tea plates, cut to 80c set 8-inch cups and saucers, cut to 1.00 Fruit saucers, cut to 40c set Covered butter dishes, cut to 80c. THIRD F